Major Investigation: Questions to Ask Major or Faculty Advisors

Major: _______________________________________

- What skills does this major require and develop?

- Is there a good introductory class?

- Do I need to declare the major before I can take major courses?

- What type of coursework and projects (essays, papers, group projects, research, assignments, etc.) can I expect in the courses for this major?

- What kind of jobs do students with this major pursue?

- How do salaries in this field compared with other fields?

- Are there opportunities for internships?

- Are there student organizations associated with this major?

- What do you like (the representative) like best about this major?