CAMPUS

The 241-acre campus is bounded on the east by the Orange Freeway (Route 57), the south by Nutwood Avenue, the west by State College Boulevard and the north by Yorba Linda Boulevard.

Address: 800 N. State College Blvd., Fullerton, CA 92831-3599

HISTORY

The university was founded in 1957 by act of the California Legislature. Classes began in the fall of 1959 in rooms leased from the Fullerton Union High School District. The first commencement was held in June 1960. The first classes on campus were held in the fall of 1960.

GOVERNANCE

The university is subject to policies established by the California Legislature and the California State University Board of Trustees. Campus governance is the responsibility of the president. The Academic Senate (Stephen Stambough, chair/CSU senator) develops policy on curriculum, academic standards, criteria and standards for faculty performance and other matters that, if approved by the president, become university policy.

FACILITIES

The campus encompasses 110 permanent buildings, including student housing for 1,980 residents and the 585-seat Gastronome dining complex. Other additions in recent years include: Titan Hall, Children's Center, Student Recreation Center and the University Police and Emergency Operations Center. Additions also have been made to the Joseph Claves III Performing Arts Center, Paulina June and George Pollak Library and Titan Student Union, which completed a 27,000-square-foot expansion. The facility includes a 1,200-seat events pavilion, small theater, food court, pub, bowling alley and conference rooms.

The Kinesiology and Health Science Building includes the Center for Successful Aging. The Charles L. and Rachel E. Ruby Gerontology Center is home to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. The 10-story College Park building on Nutwood Avenue houses the College of Communications and College of Education, and provides additional classrooms and office space for staff and faculty. Three parking structures — Nutwood, State College and Eastside South — opened in 2004, 2006 and 2010 respectively. The Eastside North Structure, completed in 2020, added about 1,900 spaces, bringing the total to 7,200 parking spaces across the four structures. Including surface lots, the campus now has parking for over 12,600 vehicles.

Fullerton Arboretum

The Fullerton Arboretum, developed with the city of Fullerton, is located at the northeast corner of campus and is open to the public. Heritage House, built in 1894 and moved to the 26-acre preserve in 1972, is a historical museum. A visitor and conference center includes a museum devoted to the agricultural history of Orange County and the contributions of Japanese-Americans.

Fullerton Marriott

A full-service hotel opened in 1989 on the southeast corner of the campus in a project involving the Marriott Corp., the city of Fullerton and CSUF.

Titan Sports Complex

Revenue from the hotel venture was used to establish the Titan Sports Complex in 1992, featuring Titan Stadium (10,000 seats), Goodwin Field (3,500 seats), Anderson Field for softball, a track and full-sized soccer field.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Men's programs are: NCAA Division I baseball (2004, 1995, 1984 and 1979 national championships), basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, and track and field.

Division I women's sports are: basketball, cross country, golf, indoor and outdoor track and field, soccer, softball (1986 national championship), tennis and volleyball.

MASCOT

The choice of the elephant as the university's mascot, dubbed Tuffy Titan, dates to 1962 when the campus hosted "The First Intercollegiate Elephant Race in Human History." The May 11 student-organized event attracted 10,000 spectators, 15 pachyderm entrants and worldwide news coverage. Associated Press rated the story among the year's top 10, and "Day of the Titan" was born.

CULTURAL EVENTS

The College of the Arts presents a wide variety of cultural attractions showcasing student and faculty talent, plus guest artists. Associated Students Productions events include noon concerts in Becker Amphitheater, singers and comedians in The Pub, and celebrity performers in the Portola Pavilion and Claves Performing Arts Center.

PHILANTHROPY

The Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation oversees the management of philanthropic gifts to the university. Its board of governors focuses its expertise, oversight and advocacy on enhancing private support for California State University, Fullerton.

SUPPORT GROUPS

CSUF maintains a large network of community support groups. These include: the President's Associates, CSUF Alumni Association, Art Alliance, Association of the Friends and Docents of the Anthropology Museum, Colleagues of the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Emeriti, Friends of the Fullerton Arboretum, MAMM Alliance for the Performing Arts, Music Associates, Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, Patrons of the Library, Reading Educators Guild, Titan Advocates and Titan Athletics Council.

AUXILIARIES

The university partners with a number of affiliated not-for-profit organizations that work to support and advance the institution's educational mission, offer co-curricular experiences to students, and provide a variety of services to all members of the Titan community. They are: Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation, CSUF Alumni Association, CSUF Associated Students Inc., CSUF Auxiliary Services Corp. and CSUF Housing Authority.

PARKING

University parking is self-supported by fees charged to all students, faculty and staff members. Visitor parking is available for a daily permit fee of $10, or $4 per hour in designated spaces. Parking is free on weekends in most parking lots and after 5 p.m. on Fridays.
