

WAKEMAN REENTRY SCHOLARSHIP

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS UP TO $1300

CAROLE WAKEMAN

Ms. Wakeman was a reentry student when she attended CSUF and is familiar with the challenges of raising a family and completing her degree. Ms. Wakeman established this scholarship to support the efforts of current CSUF reentry students whose educational pursuits are necessary to achieve their career goals. Her hope is to enable a CSUF student to achieve their dreams educationally and through their career.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicant must be a reentry student; currently enrolled at CSUF; attending CSUF in fall 2020, maintaining a 2.0 GPA or above; and student must be able to demonstrate how their educational success will enable them to attain their career goals, perhaps building on current work or life experience that will position them for a successful career in that field.

Application must be accompanied by a personal statement (500 words or less) demonstrating how your career goals are congruent with your current activities, employment, etc. and your plans for the future in the field. In addition you must include at least one letter of recommendation from a faculty or staff member.

Applications are to be turned in by April 17th at 5pm in the WoMen's and Adult Reentry Center, GH 205. Notification of award will be sent early May and financial award will distributed fall 2020.

The WoMen's and Adult Reentry Center strives to help as many students as possible. Hence, a student may receive only one award per academic semester: fall, spring, summer. (This does not apply to the YWCA and ASI Scholarships). Our intention is to make the best possible match of scholarship for our students. Accordingly, if you are selected for more than one scholarship, we will match you with the scholarship with the higher value.
