“Helping students align arts, academics and careers.”

Edith Head enjoyed a hallowed position in Hollywood dressing all of the glamorous stars of the Golden Era both male and female. She earned eight Academy Awards (more than any other woman to date) designing some 1,100 films in her 43-year career as head of costume design at both Paramount and Universal Studios. Ms. Claassen’s portrayal has received countless accolades from her many appearances across the country and in an engagement in London’s West End. This will be her first Southern California appearance in five years.
