

Cal State Fullerton's College of the Arts is an essential part of the creative fabric of Southern California, proudly serving as both an academic and cultural resource. We are a living laboratory for the arts, where success is measured in lines of dialogue, phrases of choreography, sheets of music and slabs of clay. Our alumni leave lasting legacies by contributing to the vitality of the arts nationally and globally and can be found in all facets of the thriving art and entertainment industries. Each year, the college enthusiastically opens its doors to more than 40,000 students, campus and community members who attend the hundreds of concerts, exhibitions, workshops, masterclasses, visiting artists' lectures and performances we present.

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

For more than 50 years, the School of Music has prepared students for professional careers in music by fostering an environment in which individual achievement and artistic expression thrive fully and equitably for our diverse students. The school's artist-teachers are professional musicians and academics who share, along with their students, a deep passion for and common desire to achieve excellence in music.
