

CSUF DEPARTMENT OF VISUAL ARTS

STUDY ABROAD

SUMMER SESSION 2019

Mexican Muralism and the Art of Frida Kahlo

Travel dates: May 20 - June 2

Mexico City - Guanajuato

2 on-campus meetings: TBD

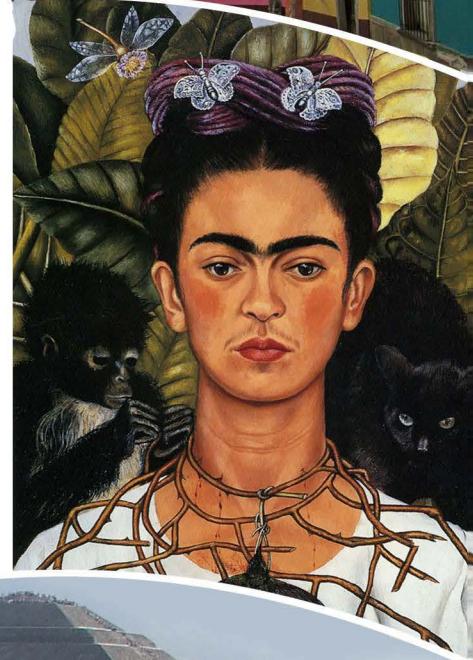

Discover the art, history, beauty, cultural diversity and many attractions of Mexico City and Guanajuato.
On-site lectures, exciting field trips and great cultural activities.
Visits include museums, historical and archaeological sites.

Topics Include: Art, Art History & Architecture
This program offers a Service Learning opportunity.

Course Credit Options: Art 312 Modern Art (3 Cr.),
Art 480T Selected Topics in Art History (3 Cr.),
Art 499 Independent Research (3 Cr.)

Estimated program fee: $1,600. Includes, airfare, hotel, entrance fees and designated meals. (Does not include tuition)

Space is limited! For more information please contact Rose Adams: roseadams@fullerton.edu

Open to all majors. Can fulfill graduation requirements for general and art majors or as an elective. Participants should have junior or senior standing. Graduate students may apply.