Repertoire and Other Audition Information for the BM and BA in Music

Brass

Repertoire requirements

Brass candidates are required to perform the following:

1. Two contrasting movements from the standard solo repertory for your instrument OR
   One movement from a concerto and a standard etude.
   - Accompaniment is not required.
   - Excerpts from school band or orchestra repertoire will not be accepted as audition material.

2. Major scales and Minor scales—one octave through 4 flats and 4 sharps. Any of the three forms of minor scales is acceptable.

3. Sight Reading

Audition length

12 minutes. Sign up for a time at https://apps.fullerton.edu/musicaudition.

Audition location

Clayes Performing Arts Center, East Lobby. See directions below.

Parents meeting

Each audition day includes an informational meeting for parents. This is normally held at 12:00pm in CPAC 257. Look for confirmation of this time and room in an email you will receive before the audition weekend.

Your university admission

Sign up for and complete your audition regardless of the status of your university application and admission. Even if you have been denied admission to the university, the School of Music may advocate that you be granted admission based on your musical talent.

Directions and parking

When you arrive at the CSUF campus, park in the Nutwood Parking Structure (NPS) (at Nutwood Ave. and State College Blvd.), using either entrance 3 or 4. Parking is free. Walk toward the elevators and out onto the performing arts walk, and you will see signs directing you to the East Lobby of the Clayes Performing Arts Center (CPAC). CSUF music majors will be awaiting your arrival in the East Lobby outside our Recital Hall, and are there to assist you throughout the day. You can find a map at https://apps.fullerton.edu/musicaudition
