

Employee Assistance Program

Pointing You In The Right Direction

We all experience times when we need a little help managing our personal lives. Your employer understands this and is providing the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) to covered employees in connection with your group insurance from The Standard[‡], to offer support, guidance and resources to help you and your family find the right balance between your work and home life.

What Can The EAP Do For Me?

Experienced master's-degreed clinicians will confidentially consult with you over the telephone and direct you to the solutions and resources you need. You may also receive referrals to support groups, community resources, a network counselor or your health plan. These services are available for covered employees, their dependents, including children to age 26, and all household members.

The EAP Services Can Help With:

- Child care and elder care
- Alcohol and drug abuse
- Life improvement
- Difficulties in relationships
- Stress and anxiety with work or family
- Depression
- Goal-setting
- Emotional well-being
- Financial and legal concerns
- Grief and loss
- Identity theft and fraud resolution
- Online will preparation
