Students at California State University, Fullerton (CSUF) strive to Reach Higher every day inside and outside of the classroom as they work to achieve their academic, career, and personal goals. As with all students, they are busy balancing studying, homework, exams, work and more. We also understand it can be a challenge at times to grab their attention to your opportunities, so this is where the Career Center can help.

It all starts with Branding and Exposure. The Career Center at CSUF provides many options to promote your organization and recruitment needs through our innovative events, workshops, information sessions and more. We understand that your time is of the essence, therefore we will do our best to provide tailored events and maximize your time on campus to bring you the best return on your investment (ROI).

Our Media Kit lists the ways you can better engage with students and Foster the Future. Turn the pages to discover the ways you can begin building or enhancing your brand and promote your opportunities and initiatives.

BUILD YOUR BRAND

1. LOGOS ON DISPLAY
   Brand recognition both promotes how students view your organization as a great place to work and can showcase company culture as well.

2. ADS ON MULTIPLE CHANNELS
   From banner images on Titan Connection to big email header images, students see more than just a logo.

3. PROGRAMMING ADS
   With a large audience at our Career Fairs, ads in these programs increase your visibility.
Not sure where to start? Here’s a path for you to see what options fit best for your organization. There’s no one-size-fits-all solution and no particular order to follow. But these are some methods to enhance your presence at CSUF.
