[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[6] Includes origins from Dominican Republic, Spain, and Spanish-speaking Central or South American countries and general responses such as "Latino" or "Hispanic."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[6] Includes origins from Dominican Republic, Spain, and Spanish-speaking Central or South American countries and general responses such as "Latino" or "Hispanic."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption. Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

[1] Homeowner vacancy rate is the proportion of homeowner inventory that is vacant "for sale." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units "for sale only" by the sum of owner-occupied units, "for sale only" vacant units, and vacant units that have been sold but not yet occupied; & then multiplying by 100.

[2] The rental vacancy rate is the proportion of the rental inventory that is vacant "for rent." It is computed by dividing the total number of vacant units for rent by the sum of the renter-occupied units, vacant units that are "for rent," and vacant units that have been rented but not yet occupied; and then multiplying by 100.

[3] Other Pacific Islander alone, or two or more Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander categories.

[4] In combination with one or more other races listed. May add to more than total population and more than 100% because individuals may report more than one race.

[5] "Spouse" represents spouse of householder. It does not reflect all spouses in household. Responses of "same-sex spouse" were edited to "unmarried partner."

[7] "Family households" consist of a householder and one or more other people related to the householder by birth, marriage, or adoption. They do not include same-sex married couples. Same-sex couple households are included in the family households category if there is at least one additional person related to the householder by birth or adoption.

Same-sex couple households with no relatives of the householder present are tabulated in nonfamily households.

GLOSSARY

Housing units - A house, an apartment, a mobile home or trailer, a group of rooms, or a single room occupied as separate living quarters, or if vacant, intended for occupancy as separate living quarters. Separate living quarters are those in which the occupants live separately from any other individuals in the building and which have direct access from outside the building or through a common hall. For vacant units, the criteria of separateness and direct access are applied to the intended occupants whenever possible.

Housing tenure - Refers to the distinction between owner-occupied and renter-occupied housing units.

Households By Type -Households are classified by type according to the sex of the householder and the presence of relatives. Examples include: married-couple family; male householder, no wife present; female householder, no husband present; spouse (husband/wife); child; and other relatives.

Group Quarters - Includes all people not living in households. This term includes those people residing in group quarters as of the date on which a particular survey was conducted. Two general categories of people in group quarters are recognized: 1) the institutionalized population which includes people under formally authorized supervised care or custody in institutions at the time of enumeration (such as correctional institutions, nursing homes, and juvenile institutions) and 2) the noninstitutionalized population which includes all people who live in group quarters other than institutions (such as college dormitories, military quarters, and group homes). The noninstitutionalized population includes all people who live in group quarters other than institutions.

Hispanic or Latino - For Census 2000, American Community Survey: People who identify with the terms "Hispanic" or "Latino" are those who classify themselves in one of the specific Hispanic or Latino categories listed on the Census 2010 or ACS questionnaire - "Mexican," "Puerto Rican," or "Cuban" - as well as those who indicate that they are "other Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino." Origin can be viewed as the heritage, nationality group, lineage, or country of birth of the person or the person's parents or ancestors before their arrival in the United States. People who identify their origin as Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino may be of any race.
