Each student spends at least one full day a week off campus in a professional setting. This on-the-job experience is often the first step to a permanent position following graduation. At the close of each semester, art directors from graphic design studios, publishing houses and animation studios are invited to review the portfolios of student interns. The course may be repeated for a total of six credit units.

Prerequisites
- Junior, Senior or Graduate standing
- At least a 2.0 GPA
- Attend an orientation session (see your Faculty Internship Coordinator for details)
