5. Planning and Evaluation

Context: A major component of the human services profession involves the assessment of the needs of clients and client groups and the planning of programs and interventions that will assist clients and client groups in promoting optimal functioning, growth, and goal attainment. At regular intervals, the outcomes must be evaluated and necessary adjustments made to the plan both at an individual client and program level.

Standard 15: The curriculum shall provide knowledge and skill development in systematic analysis of services needs; planning appropriate strategies, services, and implementation; and evaluation of outcomes.

Specifications for Standard 15

Demonstrate how the knowledge, theory, and skills for each of the following specifications are included, analyzed, and applied in the curriculum:

For the most up-to-date information, please contact the program.
6. Interventions and Direct Services

Context: Human services professionals function as change agents and must therefore attain and develop a core of knowledge, theory, and skills to provide direct services and interventions to clients and client groups.

Standard 16: The curriculum shall provide knowledge and skills in direct service delivery and appropriate interventions.

Specifications for Standard 16

7. Interpersonal Communication

Context: The ability to create genuine and empathic relationships with others is central to the human services profession. These skills are applicable to all levels of education, and a greater proficiency is expected at each progressively higher level.

Standard 17: Learning experiences shall be provided for the student to develop his or her interpersonal skills.

Specifications for Standard 17

Demonstrate how the knowledge, theory, and skills for each of the following specifications are included, analyzed, and applied in the curriculum:

- a. Clarifying expectations.
- b. Dealing effectively with conflict
- c. Establishing rapport with clients.
- d. Maintaining behaviors that are or are not congruent with the ethics of the profession.

8. Administrative

Context: A holistic approach to human services recognizes direct and indirect services as components of the same system. Administrative support (indirect service) is essential to the effective delivery of direct services to clients or client groups.

Standard 18: The curriculum shall provide knowledge, theory, and skills in the administrative aspects of the services delivery system.

Specifications for Standard 18

Demonstrate how the knowledge, theory, and skills for each of the following specifications are included, analyzed, and applied in the curriculum:

- a. Managing organizations through leadership and strategic planning,
- b. Supervision and human resource management,
- c. Planning and evaluating programs, services, and operational functions,
- d. Developing budgets and monitoring expenditures,
- e. Grant and contract negotiation,
- f. Legal and regulatory issues and risk management,
For the most up-to-date information, please contact the program.
10. Self-Development

Context: Human services professionals use their experience and knowledge for understanding and helping clients. This requires awareness of one’s own values, cultural bias, philosophies, personality, and style in the effective use of the professional self. It also requires an understanding of how these personal characteristics affect clients.

Standard 20: The program shall provide experiences and support to enable students to develop awareness of their own values, personalities, reaction patterns, interpersonal styles, and limitations.

10. Self-Development Context:

Human services professionals use their experience and knowledge for understanding and helping clients. This requires awareness of one’s own values, cultural bias, philosophies, personality, and style in the effective use of the professional self. It also requires an understanding of how these personal characteristics affect clients.

Standard 20: The program shall provide experiences and support to enable students to develop awareness of their own values, personalities, reaction patterns, interpersonal styles, and limitations.
