

Criminal Justice BA Assessment Plan

Program Learning Goals & Outcomes	When to assess	What evidence to collect (measures & strategies)	Who will collect	How evidence will be assessed	How closing the loop decisions will be made	Using assessment results/acting on assessment
Students are able to articulate key concepts and trends in crime, law and justice	Cycle 1 Pretest: Fall 2017	A multiple-choice assessment instrument given in CRJU-300.	Assessment Coordinator	Assessment Coordinator	Assessment Coordinator reports to full faculty	Assessment Coordinator makes an annual report to full faculty with results and recommendations. Faculty approve plans to address areas of concern.
	Cycle 4 Posttest: Spring 2020	A multiple-choice assessment instrument given in CRJU-330 and 340.
Students are able to write clearly, effectively and persuasively	Cycle 2 Pretest: Fall 2018	Randomly selected papers given in CRJU-300.	Assessment Coordinator	Paired faculty review, rotated among faculty	Assessment Coordinator reports to full faculty	Assessment Coordinator makes an annual report to full faculty with results and recommendations. Faculty approve plans to address areas of concern.
	Cycle 5 Posttest: Spring 2021	Randomly selected papers given in CRJU-330 and 340.
Students are able to apply various curricular constructs to criminal justice patterns, policies and practices	Cycle 3 Pretest: Fall 2019	Randomly selected papers given in CRJU-300.	Assessment Coordinator	Paired faculty review, rotated among faculty within area of expertise	Assessment Coordinator reports to full faculty	Assessment Coordinator makes an annual report to full faculty with results and recommendations. Faculty approve plans to address areas of concern.
	Cycle 6 Posttest: Spring 2022	Randomly selected papers given in CRJU-330 and 340.

rev. 2017