

Kinesiology BS Assessment Plan

Year	SLO#	SLO	Class	Measure
16/17	2	Students can demonstrate knowledge and skill in a variety of physical activities including safe practices, practices with diverse populations, and strategies for maintaining a physically active lifestyle across the lifespan.	KNES 100 to 167	Exam questions and course assignments.
17/18	5	Students can demonstrate professional, ethical, and legal behavior in the promotion of the discipline of Kinesiology.	494/495	Field supervisor survey/evaluation results.
18/19	3	Students can apply previously learned multidisciplinary concepts to Kinesiology related problems and activities across the lifespan applying current best practices and technology.	385 and other multi-disciplinary coursework	Multidisciplinary Instructional Analysis Project grading rubrics.
19/20	4	Students can describe and apply systematic ways of knowing and appropriate technology to analyze, critique, evaluate and support research-oriented inquiry of professional practice in movement-related fields.	348/383	Imbedded prompts/ short answer items
20/21	6	Students can promote a physically active lifestyle in an interdependent global community by engaging in informed dialog with professional communities regarding kinesiology-based principles and practices.	494/495	Embedded assignment/s within the practicum or internship coursework.
21/22	1	Demonstrate knowledge of key concepts in the sub-disciplines of Kinesiology from a biological, physiological, biomechanical, psychological, sociocultural, historical, and philosophical perspective.	348,361, 371, 380, 381, 383	Exam questions and course assignments.

For the most up-to-date information, please contact the program.