

Academic Integrity

New Student Orientation - 2011

Academic Dishonesty is:

The attempt to gain an unfair academic advantage and/or assisting or permitting another to do so.

4 Main Categories of Academic Dishonesty:

- Falsification of Documents
- Cheating on Exams
- Cheating on Assignments
- Plagiarism

Falsification of Documents

Alteration or misrepresentation of official or unofficial records including academic transcripts, applications for admission, exam papers, registration materials, medical excuses or lab attendance forms.

Cheating on Exams

Unauthorized use of external assistance during an examination (such as using crib notes, talking with fellow students, or looking at another person's exam).

Cheating on Assignments (unauthorized collaboration)

Preparing academic assignments with another person without faculty authorization (such as discussing or sharing answers on homework or projects).

Plagiarism

Using someone else's work in any academic assignment without appropriate acknowledgment (such as paraphrasing another's ideas or copying text, phrases or ideas from a book, journal, electronic source or another person's paper).

Consequences of Academic Dishonesty

- Grade penalty from a “Zero” on an assignment to an “F” in the course
- Dismissal from academic department
- Suspension from CSUF and all CSU campuses
- Expulsion from all CSU campuses (permanently being kicked out)
- Revocation of admission
- Revocation of degree

Tips on How to be a Successful Student

- Ask questions
- Form good study habits
- Complete assigned readings
- Manage time
- Utilize resources
- Seek help early

Resources to help you

- Pollak Library
 - Writing Center
 - University Learning Center
- Math Tutoring Center
- Professor's office hours
- Counseling & Psychological Services
- Academic Integrity Website
(www.fullerton.edu/INTEGRITY)

QUIZ!

What are the 4 categories of Academic Dishonesty?

What are some resources you can use for help?

Raise your hand if you have been taking notes during this presentation.

Learning is Preeminent

References :
Sandra Rhoten: Academic Expectations at CSUF
Presentation

