Re: Notice of CSU Executive Order 1097 (Revised August 14, 2020)

The California State University (CSU) is committed to maintaining an inclusive community that values diversity and fosters tolerance and mutual respect. We embrace and encourage our community differences in age, disability (physical and mental), gender (or sex), gender identity (including transgender), gender expression, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, nationality, race or ethnicity (including color or ancestry), religion (or religious creed), sexual orientation, and veteran or military status, and other characteristics that make our community unique.

CSU Executive Order 1097 Revised August 14, 2020 (EO 1097R 2020) is the policy prohibiting and procedure for addressing reports of discrimination, harassment and retaliation, sexual misconduct, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. For a full copy of this Executive Order please visit https://calstate.policystat.com/policy/8453516/latest/.

All Students have the right to participate fully in CSU programs and activities free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. The CSU prohibits harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment, as well as sexual misconduct, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. Such behavior violates University policy and may also violate state or federal law.

All sexual activity between members of the CSU community must be based on affirmative consent. Engaging in any sexual activity without first obtaining affirmative consent to the specific sexual activity is sexual misconduct and constitutes a violation of CSU policy, whether or not the sexual activity violates any civil or criminal law.

If you have experienced sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, or any other discrimination and/or harassment based on your sex, gender and/or sexual orientation, there are multiple reporting options available, including confidential reporting. For more information, visit the Title IX and Gender Equity website at http://www.fullerton.edu/titleix/process/index.php or refer to this Rights and Options document.
