Community Service Programs, Inc. presents Up! Bystander Intervention, Confidential Advocacy, Orange County's Rape Crisis Center, and Women's Center.

Survivors Speak is an event that raises awareness of sexual assault on campus. Hosted by Consent is Key, it takes place on Thursday, October 23, at Housing Piazza from 8:00 pm to 11:00 pm.

LGBT/Queer Center: For more information on the events for the ASI location, visit the TSU Alvarado B, Date: 4:00 pm on October 22. Sessions held each semester.

Queer Leaders: Want to develop leadership skills while also learning how to navigate the queer space? Join the Queer Leaders retreat before the beginning of the semester. Developing Queer Leaders Series is held in Pollak Library South 171 (Chicana/o Resource Center) on Wednesday, October 22, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

Advanced SafeSpace Training: This interactive discussion will help participants who are first generation students understand the importance of safe spaces. First Generation Students: Issues and Transitions is held in Pollak Library South 171 (Chicana/o Resource Center) on Wednesday, October 22, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

Economic control in an abusive relationship takes many forms, and gaining financial control is crucial for successful self-sufficiency and long-term safety. Economic Control in an Abusive Relationship is held in WakeMan Seminar Room | University Hall 205 on Wednesday, October 22, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

Women, Infants, and Children (WIC): An overview of the WIC program, services, and qualifications will be discussed. WIC is held in Pollak Library South 171 (Chicana/o Resource Center) on Monday, October 21, from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Diversity Initiatives and Resource Centers: The Word Detective (antly bout the process) and ask questions about the graduate school application process. This session gives students the opportunity to get insights on personal experiences, perspectives, and advice from STEM graduate students representing different disciplines, regarding the graduate school application process. The session will be held in APARC Conference Room, University Hall 210B on Monday, October 21, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

The "Noontime" Educational Series explores contemporary issues on gender identity and promotes discussion on topics related to gender both historically and in today's society, through intersecting identities including culture, ability, sexuality, and so on. "Noontime" Educational Series on Gender Identity: Reel World: A Girl Like Me: The Gwen Araujo Story is held in WakeMan Seminar Room | University Hall 205 on Tuesday, October 21, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

The "Noontime" Educational Series explores contemporary issues on gender identity and promotes discussion on topics related to gender both historically and in today's society, through intersecting identities including culture, ability, sexuality, and so on. "Noontime" Educational Series on Gender Identity: First Generation Students: Issues and Transitions is held in Pollak Library South 171 (Chicana/o Resource Center) on Wednesday, October 22, from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm.

Please come out and support or forward this event information. If you would like to unsubscribe, please respond to this email. For more information, please contact womenscenter@fullerton.edu or aslgbtqcenter@fullerton.edu.