Dr. Tyler Parry will be presenting his research on the historical usage of highly trained canines in subverting African Americans from slavery to the Civil Rights Movement.

Subversion of Black Bodies from Slavery to the Civil Rights Movement

Dr. Tyler Parry
2:00 PM - 5:00 PM
Thursday | October 2
African American Resource Center, Humanities 222

---

Unaccompanied Children at the Border: Myths and Realities

Dr. Julían Jefferies will lead a conversation which aims to dispel some of the myths about the immigration of unaccompanied children.

Unaccompanied Children at the Border: Myths and Realities

Dr. Julían Jefferies
4:00 PM - 5:00 PM
Thursday | October 2
Pollak Library North 130

---

Developing Queer Leaders Series

Want to develop your leadership skills while exploring Queer Leadership Series?

Developing Queer Leaders Series
11:00 AM - 4:00 PM
Tuesday | October 14
Location: Titan Student Union Alvarado A

---

Communications

Learn your communication style and how it affects your academic and personal achievements. Learn effective ways to communicate in order to be heard and understood.

Communications
12:30 PM - 3:00 PM
Wednesday | October 15
WakeMan Seminar Room | University Hall 205

---

Working Poems

This interactive discussion will help participants understand the beginning steps and learn to write their poems effectively.

Working Poems
5:00 PM - 8:00 PM
Tuesday | October 14
African American Resource Center, Humanities 222

---

Reel World: Invisible War

The film paints a startling picture of the extent of the problem caused by the U.S. military. The film provides a deeper understanding of the issue and highlights the need for action to address the Latino opportunity gap.

Reel World: Invisible War
5:00 PM - 8:00 PM
Friday | October 17
WakeMan Seminar Room | University Hall 205