INVESTIGATOR

Significant financial interests are involved and must be disclosed where one or more of the following financial interests of the investigator (and those of the investigator's spouse/domestic partner or dependent children) reasonably appears to be related to the investigator's Institutional responsibilities.

A significant financial interest exists if an equity interest that, when aggregated for the investigator and the investigator's spouse/domestic partner and dependent children, exceeds $10,000 in value as determined through reference to public prices or other reasonable measures of market value, and represent more than a 5% ownership interest in any single entity.

A significant financial interest exists when salary, royalties, or other payments that, when aggregated for the investigator and the investigator's spouse/domestic partner of dependent children, have exceeded, or are expected to exceed $10,000 during any immediately preceding or following 12-month period.

For National Science Foundation (NSF), United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and other applicable agencies, significant financial interest does not include:

- Salary, royalties, or other remuneration from the applicant Institution
- Any ownership interest in the Institution, if the Institution is an applicant under the Small Business Innovation Program or Small Business Technology Transfer Program
- Income from seminars, lectures, or teaching engagements sponsored by public or nonprofit entities
- Income from service on advisory committees or review panels for public or nonprofit entities
- Equity interest and/or salary, royalty and other payments do not exceed the thresholds in the section regarding NSF, USDA, and other applicable agencies immediately above
