You are ready to take the General Education math course to fulfill the General Education Area B4 requirement.

If you are a non-business, non-STEM, or an undeclared major you may take either Math 110 (Math for Liberal Arts), or Math 120 (Elementary Statistics) beginning in spring 2019.

If you are majoring in Pre-Business, Engineering, Computer Science, Math or one of the Sciences, please take the online ALEKS program for preparation for calculus before you attend orientation. Based on your fourth ALEKS assessment you may be placed in a calculus course or a calculus pre-requisite course in the fall semester [Math 125 (pre-calculus) if your major requires Math 150A (calculus 1), or Math 115 (college algebra) if your major requires Math 130 (a short course in calculus) or Math 135 (business calculus)]. Please check the CSUF catalog to see which math course is required for your major. You will need to plan to take a math course in fall 2018.
