

GET PAID UP TO $100K JUST FOR BEING A STUDENT!!!

Baccalaureate Degree Completion Program (BDCP) in Orange County!

If you are a college student who is interested in becoming a naval officer when you graduate, but don't want to participate in any ROTC while in college, you can apply for the Navy's Baccalaureate Degree Completion Program (BDCP)! BDCP will pay you up to $100,000 to complete your degree.. Tuition, books, room and board, a new computer; whatever it takes! The money is sent directly to you to spend as you see fit. You will not have to wear uniforms, or take any special courses while in college.

To participate, you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Have completed 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours
- Have a 2.7/4.0 GPA
- Be younger than age 34 before completing your degree
- Meet the Navy's physical requirements
- Be enrolled in or accepted for transfer to a regionally accredited four-year college or university.

You can apply for: surface warfare, pilot, naval flight officer, SEAL, explosive ordnance disposal, supply, aeronautical maintenance duty, intelligence, cryptology, or oceanography specialties!

As a member of the program you will:

- Be in active duty status.
- Receive a full salary, benefits, and allowances.
- Receive full medical and dental benefits.
- Continue your college education.
- Qualified technical majors can receive a salary of approximately $2,800 per month for up to 3 years prior to graduation and qualified non-technical majors can receive this salary for up to 2 years prior to graduation.
- You'll pay for your tuition, books and other school-related expenses while completing your bachelor's degree. No uniform requirements apply until after graduation.
