

~$100k Cash Available for College Sophmores, Juniors and Seniors!

Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate Program (NUPOC) in Orange County!

If you are a college student who is interested in becoming a naval nuclear engineering officer when you graduate, but don't want to participate in any ROTC while in college, you can apply for the Navy's Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate Program (NUPOC)! NUPOC offers up to $100,000 to complete your degree. Tuition, books, room and board, a new computer; whatever it takes! The money is sent directly to you to spend as you see fit. You will not have to wear uniforms, or take any special military courses while in college.

To participate, you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Have completed one year of calculus and calculus-based physics (with grades of C or better).
- Have a 2.0/4.0 GPA (>3.4 GPA is competitive!)
- Be younger than age 31 before completing your degree
- Meet the Navy's physical requirements
- Be enrolled in or accepted for transfer to a regionally accredited four-year college or university.

You can apply for: surface warfare, submarine warfare, Nuclear Power School Instructor, or Naval Reactors Engineer!

As a member of the program you will:

- Be in active duty status;
- Receive a full salary, benefits, and allowances;
- Receive full medical and dental benefits
- Substantial $10k bonus right after acceptance!
- Be paid as an officer candidate (E-6) and promotable to officer candidate (E-7) after a referral and acceptance of another applicant or be on the Dean's list for a semester(or two quarters).
- You'll pay for your tuition, books and other school-related expenses while completing your degree program. No uniform requirements apply until after graduation.
