

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

System-wide Scholarships for the 2016-2017 Academic Year

We are pleased to announce the system-wide scholarships available for the 2016-2017 academic year to students in the California State University system. The attached information provides details for each of the scholarship programs.

GLENN AND DOROTHY DUMKE FELLOWSHIP

Amount: $1,300

Established by: The Glenn and Dorothy Dumke Fellowship was established in memory of Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, Chancellor of the California State University from 1962 to 1982. The purpose of this fellowship is to encourage student scholars to engage in graduate work in fields such as public policy, American history, economics, archival management and government. Preference will be given to projects that involve research about the State of California. The chosen scholar is expected to pursue research projects within special CSU library/archival collections.

Open to: Applicants must be a CSU graduate student in the areas of public policy, American history, economics, library science, archival management, or government during the 2014-2015 academic year. The award must be used to pursue research projects within the Dumke Collection or other collections housed within the CSU archives at CSU Dominguez Hills, the Center for California Studies at CSU Sacramento, or other special collections within the CSU system. Information about the CSU Special Collections can be found at <http://www.calstate.edu/gradprograms/libraries.shtml> and <http://www.calstate.edu/LS/spring05.pdf>.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Must be a Graduate student in public policy, American history, economics, archival management or government who conducts a research project on California in the CSU library/archival collections. ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the instructions and be sure to answer all questions.

Application Deadline: March 6

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST/CSU TRUSTEES' AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT

Amount: $6,000

Established by: The William Randolph Hearst Foundation established an endowed scholarship fund in 1984 to honor William Randolph Hearst, founder of the Hearst newspaper chain. The award recognizes students who have overcome adversity, demonstrated financial need, and have attributes of merit including superior academic performance, significant personal achievements, and exemplary community service. If nominated, the student will be required to work closely with the Scholarship Coordinator, Wendy Ascencio, to help prepare other required application materials. Special named scholarships will be awarded by the selection committee based on criteria such as studying in the STEM or education fields, veterans, and exemplary community service.

Open to: This scholarship is Open to any undergraduate or graduate CSUF student in any major field, who will remain a full-time CSUF student in the next academic year.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Superior academic performance ♦ Financial need ♦ Community service activities ♦ Personal Achievements ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the instructions and be sure to answer all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

DALE M. SCHOETTLER SCHOLARSHIP FOR VISUALLY IMPAIRED STUDENTS

Amount: $6,500

Established by: The Dale M. Schoettler Scholarship is for Visually Impaired Students; this scholarship was established in 1991 for San Francisco State and San José State University students. After Mr. Schoettler’s death in 2001, the California State University received a $4.8 million bequest from his estate to expand the existing financial aid program for legally blind students to all 23 CSU campuses. If nominated, you the student will be required to work closely with the Scholarship Coordinator, Wendy Ascencio, to help prepare other required materials.

Open to: This award is Open to all continuing part-time undergraduate and graduate students. Applicant must be legally blind and provide verification from a physician, which includes the best corrected visual acuity notations.

Criteria: 2.8 GPA ♦ Applicant must be legally blind ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January . To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the instructions and be sure to answer all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

THE WILLIAM & JANET LAHEY ART EDUCATION AND VISUAL ARTS SCHOLARSHIP

Amount: $9,701

Established by: The William & Janet Lahey Art Education and Visual Arts Scholarship will have one scholarship of $9,701 available for the 2014–2015 academic year for students in a post-baccalaureate program leading to a high school single subject teaching credential in the arts. The annual scholarship will be sufficient to cover tuition & fees and provide an additional small stipend.

Open to: This award is Open to half-time students in a post-baccalaureate program leading to a high school single subject teaching credential in the arts.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Must be involved in activities in the arts or who are currently engaged in art activities in schools or community art organizations ♦ Possess a bachelor's degree in art or in one of the visual art specializations. ♦ Must be enrolled in one of the following programs: a post-baccalaureate program leading to a high school single subject teaching credential in the arts, a Master of Fine Arts program in art or one of the visual arts specialization, or a Master of Arts program in art or one of the visual arts specializations. ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the onscreen instructions and be sure to answer in all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

EDISON SCHOLARS SCHOLARSHIP

Amount: Fifteen $4,000 scholarships and one $5,000

Established by: Edison International believes that education is an important source of power and advancement for young people, as well as strengthening communities. Since 2009, Edison has given more than $34 million to education programs that help make the dream of college education a reality. These programs have focused on helping minority, low-income, and underrepresented students pursue studies in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM).

Open to: This award is Open to full-time graduate students in one of the STEM majors listed below.

Criteria: 2.8 GPA ♦ financial need ♦ full-time ♦ STEM Majors fall into the following categories: Math, Physics, Chemistry, Computer Science/Information systems, Engineering: Electrical, Computer, Chemical, Mechanical, Civil, and Nano. Material Sciences: Computer, and Environmental.

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the onscreen instructions and be sure to answer in all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

FLY FISHERS CLUB OF ORANGE COUNTY MARINE STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Amount: $1,500

Established by: The Fly Fishers Club of Orange County and was founded in 1966 to further the sport of Fly Fishing. In addition to being a way to meet others who enjoy the sport, there were three goals in mind when the club was founded: Educating the public, conserving the fisheries, and contributing resources to make fly fishing enjoyable and available to all who are interested. If nominated, you the student will be required to work closely with the Scholarship Coordinator, Wendy Ascencio, to help prepare other required materials.

Open to: This award is Open to full-time undergraduate or graduate students in Marine studies.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ financial need ♦ full-time ♦ must have a commitment to community service in the fisheries biology field. Applicants must send the club email updates at the end of each semester/quarter.

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the onscreen instructions and be sure to answer in all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

RICHARD K. LEFFINGWELL SCHOLARSHIP

Amount: $3000

Established by: Richard Leffingwell joined the CSU’s Chancellor’s Office as a member of the trustees’ audit staff. Then he directed the CSU’s self-supporting financing activities, and later became the Director of Financing and Treasury. Richard worked with trustees, campuses, and the municipal financing community to establish viable systems for financing non-state projects at the 23 CSU campuses before retiring in 2004. This scholarship reflects his admiration for the university’s commitment to provide opportunities to foster the next generation of students who wish to be instrumental in serving the public.

Open to: This award is Open to full-time upper division undergraduate or graduate students in Business and Economics.

Criteria: 2.75 GPA ♦ financial need ♦ full-time ♦ Veteran ♦ Students must have demonstrated an interest in and aspire to a career in public service. ♦ Students must be currently enrolled as a full-time equivalent upper division or graduate student at a California State University campus and must remain a full-time equivalent student during the scholarship period.

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the onscreen instructions and be sure to answer in all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY OF MUNICIPAL FINANCE OFFICERS Robert M. Odell Endowed Scholarship in Public Administration

Amount: $1,950

Established by: The California Society of Municipal Finance Officers (CSMFO) established the Robert M. to honor the former city treasurer of Los Angeles. The scholarships are awarded on an alternating basis between northern and southern geographic regions of California to the seventeen campuses offering degree programs in public administration.

Open to: This award is Open to full-time undergraduate or graduate students in public administration.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ financial need ♦ full-time ♦ Applicants must be currently enrolled as a full-time, upper division undergraduate or graduate student in public administration and must remain a full-time student in good standing during the academic year in which the award is received. Strong consideration will be given to an applicant who is also: A public administration major specializing in finance and first generation college students.

Application Procedure: The online application will be available late January. To access the application, go to your CSUF portal (be sure to use the new portal) and click on the “Scholarships” button. Follow the onscreen instructions and be sure to answer in all the questions

Application Deadline: March 6