

College of Education

Note: Applicants will be notified of scholarship decisions by email no later than June 2024

These scholarships have been established through the generosity of alumni, faculty, and community supporters to assist students in the completion of programs offered by the College of Education. They are awarded on an annual basis.

Please read the important information below:

- We encourage students to apply to our scholarships before an admission decision is made in the program they are applying to.
- If you will be enrolled in a College of Education program in fall 2024 and/or spring 2025 and would like to be considered for a scholarship, please complete the 2024-2025 scholarship application to be considered for all awards (only one application per student should be submitted). Incomplete and late applications will not be considered. You may be awarded up to $3,500 for the academic year.
- The priority deadline for all scholarships is April 1, 2024. You may submit an application after this deadline; however, scholarship funds will be distributed with priority given to applications received by April 1, 2024.
- For any questions, please contact, Amir Woods, Student Success and Community Engagement Specialist in the College of Education: (aawoods@fullerton.edu) or visit Student Success Specialist for more information or if you have questions.

We do encourage you to apply for these additional scholarships, grants, and other financial aid options:
