

College of Communications

Scholarships listed present a selection of those awarded by sponsoring organizations in conjunction with the College of Communications faculty. In addition, communications majors can apply for a wide range of scholarships and awards offered by a host of outside private organizations and professional societies. Information about scholarships and awards is located on the bulletin boards on the fourth floor of College Park.

Note: For all scholarships, the notification process does not include a notification to all applicants but only to the selected recipient of the scholarship. The expected date of notification is by the end of May.

Alumni Association Scholarship for Communications Majors

Amount: $500 (two awards given)

Established by: This scholarship was established to encourage co-curricular involvement and to promote service, academic achievement, and leadership in the college. Funding is provided by the College of Communications in partnership with the Cal State Fullerton Alumni Association. Two scholarship recipients will be selected and must serve in two or more leadership areas during the next academic year: 1) hold a top-level position in a major campus activity, 2) serve on the SOAR-Interclub Council, 3) Serve as an officer in a student club, or 4) serve as an ambassador for department/college events.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing full-time students in Communication, Radio-TV-Film, or Human Communication Studies who are pursuing an undergraduate or a graduate degree.

Criteria: Full-time ♦ Academic achievement ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Leadership ♦ Extracurricular activities

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answering all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Submit an unofficial transcript and a Titan Degree Audit, available from TITAN Online; 3) Prepare a statement indicating pertinent school and community activities that illustrate your leadership potential; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-450.

Application Deadline: March 19

Christine Renée Côté Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established by family and friends

In memory of Christine Renée Côté who graduated with a degree in Communications in Journalism and was enrolled as a master student in Human Communication Studies. She fought a six-year battle with cancer, but never lost her spirit and hope in her well-fought journey.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing students in the College of Communications.

Criteria: 2.5 overall GPA ♦ Major or minor in one of the three departments in the College of Communications ♦ Generosity of spirit ♦ One-page essay Application Procedure: 1) Complete the application <http://commfaculty.edu/imatz/scholarship> or <http://communications.fullerton.edu/students.html>; 2) Provide copy of your unofficial transcripts; 3) Write an essay why you think you would be a good representative for Christine's scholarship; 4) Submit completed application and materials to Dr. Irene Matz, CP 450.

Application Deadline: February 6

Carli Christina Cummings Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Carli Christina Cummings, in her memory, by Dr. Irene Matz (Carli's Aunt), to support the efforts of students who are in need of financial assistance. Carli Christina Cummings from Erie, Pennsylvania, was tragically taken from life at age 15 in a car accident. Carli was a competitive swimmer and was the recipient of numerous awards, most recently the NISCA State Top 16 Award for the 400 Freestyle Relay and the Varsity Athletic Award for Swimming at McDowell High School. Carli's hobbies included water polo, dancing, journal writing, photography, gymnastics, snowboarding, and boating. This entry was taken from one of Carli's journal writings: "Everyone's life is a journey. It is a journey, a ride, and an obstacle. Everyone hits a bump in the road and everyone makes a wrong turn. But when mistakes are made, they are not meant to be rewound and started over. You are meant to learn from the mistakes and use your newfound knowledge in the future."

Open to: This scholarship is open to students who are pursuing a major or minor in the College of Communications (any of the three departments HCOM, RTVF, and Communications).

Criteria: 2.5 GPA overall ♦ Generosity of spirit ♦ Continuing studies ♦ Currently enrolled at CSUF

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the application form available in room CP-450 or found in <http://commfaculty.fullerton.edu/imatz/scholarship>; 2) Attach a copy of your unofficial transcripts; ;3) Write a brief essay why you think you would be a good representative for this scholarship; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-450, Associate Dean Matz.

Application Deadline: February 6

Maxwell Scholarship

Amount: $1000 (multiple awards given)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Professor Emeriti. Dr. Maxwell. One of his most significant accomplishments was founding the Department of Communications at Cal State Fullerton.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing students who are pursuing an undergraduate degree in Communications or RTVF to assist them in meeting educational expenses.

Criteria: Financial need ♦ 2.5 GPA ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Extra-curricular activities involvement ♦ Department service or participation ♦ Full time enrollment

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Write a personal statement of achievement describing in brief the challenges you have faced to get your degree; and 3) Submit application materials to CP-450.

Application Deadline: March 19

Communications

James Alexander Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Professor Emeriti, James Alexander, to recognize and honor students who have demonstrated strong academic performance and been actively involved in his/her high school newspaper, yearbook or magazine production. The applicant is required to write a 225-word essay describing their high school writing experience and their career goals as well as providing a sample of a published story, article, or photo from a high school publication.

Open to: This scholarship is open to freshman and sophomore students who are pursuing an undergraduate degree from the Department of Communications.

Criteria: 2.85 GPA ♦ Full-time ♦ Quality of writing sample

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answering all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Obtain a departmental application from CP 450; 3) Provide one letter of recommendation from a high school faculty member; 4) Write a essay no more than 225 words describing your high school writing experience and your career goals; 5) Attach a sample of your work that has been published; 6) Submit application materials to CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Myles Atlas Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was endowed by Rhonda Atlas Garside, widow of Myles Atlas, in memory of her husband's long and successful career in the advertising business.

Open to: This scholarship is open to sophomore, junior, or senior Communications majors in the advertising concentration.

Criteria: Career interest in advertising management or media buying

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answering all 7 questions, and sign the certification; and 2) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Gary Granville Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship was established by former students, family and friends of the late Gary Granville, lecturer and Daily Titan adviser, to recognize a student who has made significant contributions to the Daily Titan. The scholarship will be awarded based on your outstanding performance as an editor or as a staff reporter on the Daily Titan campus student newspaper.

Open to: This scholarship is open to junior or senior Communication majors with at least one semester enrollment remaining at Cal State Fullerton.

Criteria: 2.5 GPA ♦ Quality of published work

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions and sign the certification; 2) Attach at least one example of your published work from the Daily Titan; 3) Submit a letter of reference from the adviser of the Daily Titan; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Alfred and Louise Hewitt Journalism Fund

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship was established by Mr. Stephen Hewitt in memory of his parents, Alfred and Louise Hewitt. Mr. Alfred Hewitt was passionate about journalism and this scholarship will celebrate his witty journalistic soul. In the tradition of his humor and teaching style, this scholarship is being established in his name to honor students who carry on his writing style and approach to journalism.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate students majoring in Communications with an emphasis in Journalism.

Criteria: 3.25 GPA ♦ Financial need ♦ Excellent journalistic writing skills with an open minded viewpoint ♦ Dedicated to the journalism profession ♦ High ethical standards ♦ Leadership skills

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; 3) Attach a writing sample; and 4) Submit completed application materials to CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Terry Hynes Scholarship

Amount: $500 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was endowed by Terry Hynes, former chair of CSUF's Department of Communications and currently assistant vice president of the Office of University Relations at the University of Florida in Gainesville.

Open to: This scholarship is open to Communication majors who will be seniors with at least one semester enrollment remaining at Cal State Fullerton.

Criteria: Outstanding academic performance ♦ Contributions to the communications department

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; and 2) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, room CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

David Little Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established to recognize and honor students with good academic credentials who are in need of financial assistance.

Open to: This scholarship is open to enrolled students interested in a career in advertising management or media buying.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; and 3) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

V.J. Lovero Photojournalism Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim to assist in educating students who have demonstrated career promise in photography. The scholarship honors the memory of renowned sports photographer V.J. Lovero. Applicants must be enrolled for at least one semester during the next academic year and they must demonstrate professional promise.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing Photo Communications majors.

Criteria: Quality of portfolio

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Submit a portfolio of ten images on a CD that includes sports and portrait photography, and demonstrates your passion for a specific subject, sports or otherwise; and 3) Submit completed application and portfolio to room CP-450.

Application Deadline: March 19

The J. William Maxwell International Travel Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (multiple awards given)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Professor Emeriti Dr. Maxwell, founding chair of the Department of Communications. Professor Maxwell traveled the world during his lifetime and was interested in international communications.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing students who are pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree in Communications and will be enrolled in a university sanctioned summer, fall, spring semester or academic year study abroad program to assist them in meeting educational and travel expenses.

Criteria: Good academic standing.

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Write a personal statement discussing the study abroad program in which you will be participating and how this scholarship will help you; 3) Submit application materials to department of communications office, CP-450. 4) Travel award will be generated upon receipt of study abroad program acceptance letter and tuition payment verification. Contact Ramona Rose in the department office.

Applications Deadline: March 19

Miven Venture Partners

Amount: $1,000 (two awards given)

Established by: This scholarship was established by the Tsao Family Foundation and Miven Venture Partners to support students in need of financial assistance. Applicants must prepare a two part project (can be from a class project) consisting of: 1) 60% articulating brand strategy and 2) 40% to communicate the tag line. Selection will be based on what is distinctive or unique about the project and how well the reader understands the conceptualization of the brand. Other consideration is how well the tag line is promoted aside from an ad campaign.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate students majoring in Advertising.

Criteria: 2.0 GPA ♦ Financial need ♦ Full-time ♦ Project

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; 3) Prepare a two part sample project (fictional or real); and 4) Submit application materials to the College of Communications, CP-450.

Application Deadline: March 19

Tom Pasqua Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship was established in memory of Tom Pasqua, a journalism professor at Southwestern College in Chula Vista and in the Cal State Fullerton Communications Department during the 1970's.

Open to: This scholarship is open to community college transfer students majoring in journalism.

Criteria: 2.75 GPA ♦ Good academic credentials ♦ Demonstrated record of involvement in journalism activities

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; and 2) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, room CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

The Society of Professional Journalists Scholarship

Amount: $500 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was endowed by the Orange County Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists.

Open to: This scholarship is open to sophomore or junior Communication majors in print, visual or broadcast Journalism who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Experience in journalism activities

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; and 2) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, room CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Rick D. Pullen Tourism Scholarship

Amount: $2,500

Established by: This scholarship was established by Newport Beach and Tourism Center in honor of Rick Pullen, who served as the dean of the college for 15 years. Dean Pullen was an advocate for the Center for Entertainment and Tourism in the College of Communications and has served as a board member of the Orange County Tourism Council. The recipient will be presented with the award at the Orange County Tourism Symposium during spring semester.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate communication majors at any college level who are pursuing a career in Tourism.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA Application form available online; 2) Write a maximum 450 word essay on why you have chosen a career in tourism; 3) Provide two letters of reference from an employer, teacher or internship supervisor; and 4) Submit application packet to CP-450.

Application Deadline: March 19

Barbara K. Rickard-Riegle Broadcast Journalism Fund

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Barbara K. Rickard-Riegle in her memory, to support the efforts of students who are in need of financial assistance who are majoring in Broadcast Journalism.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing Communications students who are pursuing an undergraduate degree in Broadcast Journalism. Must be a citizen of the United States.

Criteria: Full-Time enrollment ♦ 3.25 GPA ♦ Financial need ♦ Excellent journalism skills

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a FAFSA application (or have one on file) for establishing financial need (Free Application for Federal Student Aid); 3) Provide two letters of recommendation from CSUF faculty/staff; 4) Write an essay or personal statement of achievement; 5) Submit completed application and materials to CP 400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Don and Vi Smith Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is given by family and friends in memory of Don and Vi Smith that will support the efforts of students who are in need of financial assistance.

Open to: This scholarship is open to sophomore, junior, or senior Communications majors in the journalism concentration (print, broadcast, media) who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: 2.75 GPA or higher ♦ Experience in journalism activities ♦ Financial need ♦ Plans to pursue journalism as a career

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a FAFSA application (or have one on file) for establishing financial need (Free Application for Federal Student Aid); 3) Provide a letter of from a teacher, professor or person familiar with the student's journalism interests and aptitude; 4) Write a brief statement noting proven publication record (high school, community college, or CSUF) career goals and financial need; 5) Submit completed application packet to CP 400.

Application Deadline: March 19

John Stewart Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship honors the memory of John Stewart and supports the efforts of students who are in need of financial assistance. John Stewart, an outstanding journalist, died of cancer at a young age.

Open to: This scholarship is open to junior or senior Communications majors in the journalism concentration (print, boardcast, media) who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Experience in journalism activities ♦ Financial need ♦ Plans to pursue journalism as a career

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; and 3) Submit application packet to the Communications Department, CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Edgar P. Trotter Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Professor Edgar P. Trotter, chair of Communications Department from 1983-1990, in recognition of his strong support of students and their educational needs.

Open to: This scholarship is open to sophomore, junior, or senior Communication majors who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; and 3) Submit application materials to the Communications Department, CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Vikki Vargas Broadcast Journalism Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Vikki Vargas and NBC4 to recognize and honor students in Broadcast Journalism who has demonstrated outstanding academic performance. This scholarship is funded by Vikki Vargas and NBC4 of Orange County to assist students in meeting educational expenses.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing Broadcast Journalism students who are pursuing an undergraduate or a graduate degree.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Financial need ♦ Extra-curricular activities
♦ Community service activities ♦ Leadership activities ♦ One-page essay or personal statement

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Provide two letters of recommendation from CSUF or community college or high school faculty/staff; 3) Write an essay or personal statement of achievement that discusses what you see as the future of journalism; and 4) Submit application and materials to CP-400.

Application Deadline: March 19

Human Communication Studies

Ralph Beckett Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Professor Ralph Beckett, beloved colleague, in his memory and is funded by the Beckett family.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing graduate and undergraduate students in communicative disorders (CD).

Criteria: Financial need ♦ Outstanding academic standing

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Herbert W. Booth Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Herbert Booth, a former professor of speech communication, and is awarded annually to recognize scholastic achievement and contributions to the department.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate or graduate students, who will use the award for graduate study in speech communication or communicative disorders.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Wayne Brockriede Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Dr. Wayne Brockriede who was Department Chair and renowned scholar in the field.

Open to: This scholarship is open to a graduate or undergraduate student in Speech Communication (CTP) and communicative disorders (CD) who demonstrates exceptional scholarship and professional promise in the field.

Criteria: Exceptional scholarship ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Seth Fessenden Memorial Scholarship

Amount: Varies (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Seth Fessenden, a founding member of the Human Communication Studies Department, and is awarded annually.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing undergraduate or graduate students majoring in speech communication or communicative disorders.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Flocken Family Legacy for Graduate Students

Amount: $1,000

Established by: Academic: This endowed award was established and funded by Dr. Joyce M. Flocken to recognize and honor outstanding graduate students in Human Communication Studies.

Gift: This award is intended to provide support for students who demonstrate academic achievement and have attained an excellent level of communication skills. The winners of the award should be articulate spokespersons who have demonstrated excellent critical thinking, analytical, and leadership skills that are associated with professional competence.

Open to: This award is open to seniors pursuing a graduate degree and/or continuing graduate students in Human Communication Studies who are enrolled in a minimum of six units of study.

Criteria: Seniors pursuing a graduate degree and/or continuing graduate students with a minimum of six (6) units of Human Communication coursework ♦ Recipients of the award may reapply for a second year ♦ Minimum of 3.00 Grade Point Average ♦ Documented financial need ♦ Excellent oral and written communication skills ♦ Professional leadership potential
[Under exceptional circumstances, where two applicants have equal outstanding qualifications for the award, the funds may be split between them.]

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP 420-1; 2) Complete a FAFSA application (or have one on-file) for establishing financial need (Free Application for Federal Student Aid); 3) Provide one letter of recommendation from a Human Communication faculty member; 4) Write a one-page typed statement of achievements, goals and need; 5) Submit an official copy of college transcripts; 6) Provide evidence of application to or acceptance into the CSUF graduate program; and 7) Submit a completed application and materials (if required) to College Park 420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Lee Granell Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Lee Granell, the University's first director of forensics, and former chair of the department. It is awarded to recognize achievement in forensics activities.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate or graduate students who have been actively involved in forensics.

Criteria: Outstanding achievement

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Bill Gudykunst Memorial Scholarship

Amount: Varies

Established by: This scholarship was established by a former student of Dr. Gudykunst, Ge Gao, and her husband Trevor Pearman, along with faculty, staff, students and friends.

Open to: This scholarship is open to graduate students in the Department of Human Communication Studies with an emphasis in intercultural communication.

Criteria: 3.5 GPA ♦ Strong emphasis or research in intercultural communication

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available in the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; 2) Submit a 1-2 page essay that includes the following: a) a description of your professional commitment and interest to intercultural communication, b) an explanation of how the monetary award will help you further your professional development in the intercultural field; and 3) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Peggy M. Hammer Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Ms. Peggy Hammer who earned two degrees at Cal State Fullerton and is a retired educator. She was the recipient of the CASE Distinguished Service National Award, the Outstanding Elementary Teacher of America award, and numerous prestigious awards. This scholarship is established by her loving husband, Joe Hammer.

Open to: This scholarship is open to graduate and undergraduate students in Speech Communication.

Criteria: Dedication to their education ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Service to others (volunteerism and/or family support)

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Phillip J. Schreiner Memorial Scholarship

Amount: Varies

Established by: This scholarship is named for Phillip J. Schreiner, former professor of human communication studies and first director of the university's Faculty Development Center.

Open to: This scholarship is open to undergraduate or graduate students.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Contributions to the department or to other students

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Rich Wiseman Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Professor Rich Wiseman in his memory who was honored as Outstanding Faculty for the University and recipient of the Wang Award. He was highly valued and respected by students, faculty, administrators, and staff. This scholarship is established by the Rich Wiseman family and friends.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing graduate and undergraduate students in speech communication (CTP) and communicative disorders (CD).

Criteria: Exceptional scholarship ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the department application, available from the Human Communication Studies Department, CP-420; and 2) Submit application materials to CP-420.

Application Deadline: April 6

Radio/TV/Film

RTVF Titan Shops/Titan Bookstore Scholarship(s)

Amount: $250 - $750 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: These scholarships are donated by the Titan Requisition Rewards Program of Titan Shops/Titan Bookstore.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing RTVF majors and minors who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Financial need ♦ Personal statement

Application Procedure: Complete the university application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty or staff member; 3) Provide a one page personal statement addressing your interest in pursuing a degree in Radio-TV-Film and your financial need; and 4) In a sealed envelope, submit the completed application and letter of recommendation to CP-650-07, the Department of Radio-TV-Film.

Application Deadline: March 23

Stan Spero Radio Broadcasting Award

Amount: $500 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by the Southern California Broadcasters Association to provide scholarships for students in the field of Radio Broadcast Communications. The scholarship is named for Stan Spero who broke into radio in 1951 as a salesman for KFAC/L.A. Moving on two years later to Gene Autry's KMPC 710/L.A., he spent the next forty-two years as salesman, General Sales Manager, Vice President & General Manager and later, Senior Sports Consultant to KMPC (and later, KABC.) As GSM, Stan was instrumental in bringing the Dodgers to L.A., and when the station lost the broadcast rights to that team, he played a key role in establishing the new, Autry-owned expansion team Angels baseball, selling full sponsorship on KMPC and a regional radio network. A devoted sports fan, Spero also brought USC football and basketball to the highly popular "station of the stars." Stan passed away at the age of 86.

Open to: Preference will be given to students who are majoring in Radio Broadcast Communications. Selection of the scholarship recipient will not be based solely on GPA, but may also be based on other factors such as commitment to and promise in broadcasting, service to the school and community, or other criteria that the faculty or scholarship committee considers appropriate. Selection will be made without regard for race, color, national origin, age or sex of candidate. No employees of the SCBA, or employees of the Foundation, shall be eligible for such scholarship. Scholarship grants will be awarded annually. The grant is to apply to tuition and books, room and board, transportation or supplies and educationally related fees as approved by the recipient's faculty advisor.

Criteria: Commitment to and promise in broadcasting ♦ Service to the school and community

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answering all 7 questions, and sign the certification, 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from CSUF faculty/staff, and 3) In a sealed envelope, submit completed application and letter of recommendation to College Park -650-7, Department of RTVF, c/o Dr. Fink.

Application Deadline: March 23

Women in Film Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Women in Film. The Women in Film scholarship may be awarded at the discretion of the Women in Film organization. WIF's purpose is to empower, promote, nurture, and mentor women in the film industry through a network of valuable contacts, events and programs. The selected recipient must be concentrating the majority of their courses in any area of film production

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing, full-time RTVF majors who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Full-time enrollment ♦ Personal statement ♦ Biography ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the university SA application, answer all 7 questions, and sign the certification; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty or staff member; 3) Provide a homepage personal statement addressing your interest in pursuing a degree in Radio-TV-Film and your financial need; and 4) In a sealed envelope, submit the completed application and letter of recommendation to CP-460-16, the Department of Radio-TV-Film.

Application Deadline: March 23