

College of Education

These scholarships have been established to assist students in programs offered by the College of Education. Information about additional scholarship opportunities are available from the Assistant Dean's office, CP-500.

Note: Recipients will be notified by email in June. Those who have not been selected as scholarship recipients will not be notified.

Alumni Association Scholarship for the College of Education

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by the Cal State Fullerton Alumni Association to recognize students who have demonstrated excellent academic performance, leadership, and service through involvement in co-curricular activities.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing students in the College of Education.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Leadership ♦ Co-curricular activities ♦ Service to College of Education or campus

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a one page, double-spaced, statement that describes your leadership and service activities to your department or the campus and how these activities have influenced you as a leader and future CSUF alum; and 3) Submit all application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Beulah & Cecil Ballentine Teaching Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established through the estate of Beulah and Cecil Ballentine, lifelong educators dedicated to the support of future educators.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students who have been newly admitted or are continuing in a credential or graduate degree program within the College of Education.

Criteria: Leadership ♦ Professional aptitude for a career in education

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a two-page, double-spaced essay describing the four most important characteristics of an outstanding educator and how you would personify those characteristics; 3) Provide one letter of recommendation from someone who can speak to your professionalism or potential for a career in education; 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application deadline: March 5

Delta Kappa Gamma - Epsilon Lambda Chapter

Amount: $500.00

Established by: This scholarship is established and funded by the Delta Kappa Gamma – Epsilon Lambda Chapter. This is an international organization for key women educators. One of the purposes of this organization is to endow scholarships for future women educators.

Open to: New and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing a career in education.

Criteria: 3.0 Undergraduate GPA with a demonstrated professional aptitude for teaching.

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Attach two confidential letters of recommendation. One must be from a college instructor you had in the past two years and the other may be from an instructor, faculty member or college counselor. 3) Attach a one page typed statement describing your short term and long-term educational objectives and professional goals in working with children. 4) Submit all application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Josette Romero Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1000

Established by: Established by the children of College of Education alumna Josette Romero in order to honor her memory and her commitment to children and the importance of education in their lives.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new or continuing students in the College of Education who are pursuing a certificate, credential, or graduate program.

Criteria: Enrollment in College of Education certificate, credential or graduate program ♦ Good Academic Standing ♦ Community Service Activities ♦ Financial Need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from someone who can speak to your financial need and interest in the field of teaching; 3) Write a minimum one-page personal statement about your interest in and aptitude for entry into the field of teaching, please include details about why it would be financially difficult for you to pursue a credential or degree without the support of the scholarship. Please be as detailed as possible; and 4) Submit completed application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

F. Kay Krausman Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established by College of Education alumna Kay Krausman to assist students in meeting their educational expenses.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing a teaching credential, certificate, Master's or Ed.D degree.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Professional aptitude for a career in education

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member regarding your professional aptitude for the field of education; 3) Write a minimum one page essay on applying creative/critical thinking skills in the classroom, especially as they may relate to math/science instruction; 4) Submit application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application deadline: March 5

Teacher Trust Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established in the early 1990's and funded by a group of generous faculty members and "friends of education" who valued the impact teachers have on young people and wished to fund scholarships for prospective elementary and secondary teachers during their enrollment in the university's credential programs.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing students in the College of Education who are pursuing either a teaching credential, graduate or doctoral degree.

Criteria: Enrollment in College of Education credential or degree program ♦ Good Academic Standing ♦ Co-curricular Activities ♦ Community Service Activities ♦ Financial Need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from faculty or staff member who can speak to your need and co-curricular and/or community involvement; 3) Write a minimum one-page personal statement about co-curricular activities at CSUF and/or community service projects you have participated in and how those activities have shaped your views as an educator.

4) Submit completed application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

FLM Candidate Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the CSU Mathematics and Science Teacher Initiative to support students who are pursuing a career in teaching mathematics and science.

Open to: This scholarship is open to current or future CSU Fullerton FLM credential candidates who are pursuing a career in teaching foundational-level mathematics (grades 6-10) in California public schools. Five (5) scholarships are available.

Criteria: Current FLM candidate or an applicant for Fall 2011 ♦ Quality of statement ♦ Minimum 3.0 GPA in the last 60 units ♦ Senior or Post-Baccalaureate student status at CSUF ♦ Completed at least one prerequisite to the Single Subject Credential Program (EDSC 310, 320, 330, or 340) ♦ Passed both of the required CSET Math I and II content exams

Application procedure: 1) Complete the SA application and sign the certification:

<http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/document/SCHOLARSHIP.pdf> ; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from one of the following: a) current fully-credentialed teacher of mathematics; b) FLM fieldwork supervisor; or c) CSUF faculty member; 3) Write a 500-word statement about your reasons for pursuing a career in teaching foundational level mathematics in California public schools; 4) Provide proof of having passed the required CSET Math I and II content exams and having completed at least one Single Subject Credential Program prerequisite course; 5) In a sealed envelope, submit the application materials to the Department of Secondary Education, CP-600, Attn: Ms. Sandra Alaux; and 6) For more information, contact Ms. Sandra Alaux, salaux@fullerton.edu.

Application deadline: January 27

Kathryn C. Mulholland Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $2,000

Established by: This scholarship was established by CSUF alumna Kathleen Heath to honor the memory of her mother, Kathryn C. Mulholland, and her commitment to assuring that her children had a college education.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing students in the College of Education who are pursuing a single subject teaching credential, with a preference for a student planning to teach English in grades 7-12.

Criteria: Enrollment in College of Education single subject credential program ♦ Good Academic Standing ♦ Co-curricular Activities ♦ Community Service Activities ♦ Financial Need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from faculty or staff member who can speak to your need and co-curricular and/or community involvement; 3) Write a minimum one-page personal statement about co-curricular activities at CSUF and/or community service projects you have participated in and how those activities have shaped your views as an educator and encouraged you to be an English teacher. 4) Submit completed application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Future Bilingual Science/Math Teacher Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the Mathematics and Science Teacher (MAST) Project to support students who are majoring or minoring in a science field and pursuing a career in teaching. A total of five (5) scholarships are available.

Open to: This scholarship is open to CSU Fullerton junior, senior, or graduated science or math majors or minors who are fluent in a language other than English and are pursuing careers in teaching secondary (grades 7-12) science or mathematics.

Criteria: Junior, senior, or post-baccalaureate status ♦ Minimum 3.0 GPA ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Fluency in a language other than English ♦ Pursuing a single subject teaching credential in chemistry, biology, earth sciences, physics, foundational level general science, mathematics, or foundational level mathematics ♦ Successful completion of at least one prerequisite to the Single Subject Credential Program (i.e., EDSC 304, 310, 320, 330, or 340). If course is in progress during application period, applicant must provide proof of successful progress toward meeting course requirements Application procedure: 1) Complete the SA application and sign the certification: Procedures: <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/document/SCHOLARSHIP.pdf>; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from one of the following: a) current fully-credentialed teacher of mathematics or science; b) fieldwork supervisor; or c) CSUF faculty member; 3) Compose a 500-word statement about your reasons for pursuing a career in teaching science; 4) Provide evidence of bilingual fluency; 5) In a sealed envelope, submit the application materials to the Department of Secondary Education, CP-600, Attn: Ms. Tara Barnhart (tbarnhart@fullerton.edu).

Application deadline: March 29

Prospective FLM Candidate Scholarship for Mathematics Minors

Amount: $1,000 (2 awards)

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the CSU Mathematics and Science Teacher Initiative to support students who are pursuing a career in teaching mathematics and science.

Open to: This scholarship is open to current CSU Fullerton junior or senior mathematics minors who have the intent of pursuing a career in teaching foundational-level mathematics (grades 6-10) in California public schools. Two (2) scholarships are available.

Criteria: Minimum 3.0 GPA ♦ Junior or Senior student status at CSUF ♦ Completed at least one prerequisite to the Single Subject Credential Program (EDSC 310, 320, 330, or 340) ♦ Passed at least one of the required CSET Math I and II content exams OR earned a passing grade in either MATH 130 or MATH 150A

Application procedure: 1) Complete the SA application and sign the certification: <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/document/SCHOLARSHIP.pdf>; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty member; 3) Write a 500-word statement about your reasons for pursuing a career in teaching foundational level mathematics in California public schools; 4) Provide proof of having passed at least one of the required CSET Math I and II content exams OR earned a passing grade in either MATH 130 or MATH 150A; 5) Provide proof of having completed at least one Single Subject Credential Program prerequisite course (EDSC 310, 320, 330, or 340); 6) In a sealed envelope, submit the application materials to the Department of Secondary Education, CP-600, Attn: Ms. Sandra Alaux.

Application deadline: January 27

Jean Carolyn Brenneman Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by David Reid in honor of Jean Carolyn Brenneman in recognition of her passion to teach beginning readers. The scholarship will be awarded to applicants who teach in the early grades, who are pursuing an early elementary education emphasis in the reading program, and who show academic and professional promise.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a master's degree in Reading Education or a Reading/Language Arts Specialist Credential.

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Quality of statement

Application procedure: 1) Complete the departmental application available on the Reading Department website: <http://ed.fullerton.edu/reading/scholarshipinfo.htm> 2) Write a two-page statement that describes your career goals and explains why you are applying for this scholarship; and 3) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application deadline: March 5

Marilyn C. Brewer Scholarship

Amount: $3,500

Established by: This scholarship is funded by Marilyn C. Brewer to recognize academic potential and to support a re-entry student with potential to become a high-quality teacher.

Open to: This scholarship is open to re-entry students and veteran students who have applied to or are continuing in a Credential Program. A re-entry student is defined as a person who is returning to school after being away from the academic world for a considerable amount of time.

Criteria: Academic potential ♦ Professional aptitude for teaching

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from someone who can speak to your potential for a career in teaching; 3) Write a minimum one-page statement that includes information about: a) how long you have been out of school and why you are returning to school and why it would be financially difficult for you to pursue a credential without the support of the scholarship, b) why you want to become a teacher, c) your work experiences (may include resume) and d) any special circumstances that you would like considered; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

The California Retired Teachers Association Scholarship honoring Founder, Laura E. Settle

Amount: $2,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the California Retired Teachers Association in honor of Laura E. Settle. This scholarship is awarded each year on the basis of good academic standing, a record of exemplary character and citizenship, and demonstrated financial need.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students who are in a Teaching Credential Program.

Criteria: Scholastic achievement ♦ Financial need ♦ Character

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a one-page statement that describes how you have demonstrated good character and citizenship (one page maximum); 3) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), or have one on file, for establishing financial need; 4) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty member; and 5) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

College of Education Book Scholarship

Amount: $500 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship is funded by generous donors to help College of Education students pay for their books.

Open to: This scholarship is open to re-entry students and veteran students who have applied to or are continuing in a Credential Program. A re-entry student is defined as a person who is returning to school after being away from the academic world for a considerable amount of time.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Enrollment in College of Education ♦ Financial need

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a one page statement regarding your goals to be an educator and need for money for books; and 3) Submit the application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Rachelle Cracchiolo Award for Curriculum Development

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This award was established by College of Education alumna Rachelle Cracchiolo to recognize achievement in the development of rich curriculum during a student's course of study.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students in credential or graduate degree programs in the College of Education.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Evidence of curriculum development

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member; 3) Write a minimum one-page statement describing curricular materials you have developed and how they would be useful in the classroom (feel free to submit lesson plans or other materials in additions to the statement); 4) Submit application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application deadline: March 5

Founders Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established through the generous gifts of alumni and friends, commemorating the designation of the School of Education as the CSUF College of Education in July, 2004. All donor names are recognized on the "Founders Wall" in the Dean's office complex, CP-500.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing a teaching credential, certificate, Master's or Ed.D. degree.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Professional aptitude for a career in education

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a minimum one page essay describing your career goals and the qualities you have that will make you an outstanding educator; 3) Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member; 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application deadline: March 5

Mildred Ransdorf Donoghue Master's in Elementary Curriculum and Instruction Scholarship

Amount: $300 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established by Mildred Ransdorf Donoghue to assist students in meeting their educational expenses during their final semester.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a Master's in Education with a concentration in curriculum and instruction who are completing their final semester of the program in Spring or Fall 2012.

Criteria: Re-entry student (a re-entry student is defined as a person who is returning to school after a considerable amount of time away) ♦ 3.20 GPA ♦ Commitment to high quality teaching

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide two letters of reference from CSUF faculty members in the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education; 3) Write a one-page statement that describes your reentry status and your commitment to high quality teaching; 4) Include a copy of your resume; and 5) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Mildred Ransdorf Donoghue—Multiple Subject Credential Scholarship

Amount: $300 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established by Mildred Ransdorf Donoghue to assist students in meeting their educational expenses while earning their multiple subject credential.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing Multiple Subject Credential students with a Bachelor's degree from an accredited American college or university who are completing their credential in Spring or Fall 2012.

Criteria: Re-entry student (a re-entry student is defined as a person who is returning to school after a considerable amount of time away) ♦ Enrolled in a minimum of 15 units ♦ Starting 2nd career ♦ 3.20 undergraduate GPA ♦ Commitment to high quality teaching

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide two letters of reference from CSUF faculty members in the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education; 3) Write a one-page statement that describes your re-entry status and your commitment to high quality teaching; 4) Include a copy of your resume; and 5) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Lorenz and Ruth Graham Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established in memory of Lorenz and Ruth Graham by their daughter, Dr. Ruth Graham Siegrist, Associate Professor Emeritus, Reading Department, CSUF. Dr. Lorenz Graham's award winning works helped lay the foundation for contemporary African American children's literature. The award will include a set of Lorenz Graham's novels.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a Master's degree in Reading Education or a Reading/Language Arts Specialist.

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA ♦ Enrollment in College of Education Reading Department program ♦ Essay

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Obtain one CSUF faculty recommendation regarding your professional aptitude for the field of education; 3) Write a one page essay explaining how you would integrate reading and literature into your classroom activities; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Lewis and Deborah Hancock Scholarship in Reading Education

Amount: $800 (dependent upon funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established to recognize and honor graduate students who are single parents with financial need who have demonstrated good to excellent academic performance and the potential for future leadership.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a Master's Degree in Reading Education or Reading/Language Arts Specialist credential.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Single parent/Head of household

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the departmental application available on the reading department website: <http://ed.fullerton.edu/reading/scholarshipinfo.htm> 2) Write a two page statement that explains your career goals and why you are applying for this scholarship, including evidence of academic and professional potential and financial need; and 3) Submit completed application with your typed statement to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

The Ernest G. Lake Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $400

Established by: This scholarship is named for Dr. Ernest G. Lake, who was a distinguished member of the faculty in the Educational Administration Department at CSUF. He was the first Division Chair for “Special Programs in Education,” which included graduate programs of Educational Administration, Special Education, Counseling and Reading.

Open To: This scholarship is open to students majoring in Educational Leadership in the Administrative Credential program.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Educational goals

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a statement that describes your educational goals and financial need and describe how the scholarship will help you attain your goals; 3) Attach a resume; and, 4) Submit application materials to the Department of Educational Leadership, CP-520.

Application Deadline: March 5

MSIDT Alumni Association Scholarship

Amount: $500 (subject to funding)

Established by: This scholarship was established jointly by the MSIDT faculty and Alumni Association to recognize notable academic achievement and leadership by currently enrolled MSIDT students. Two MSIDT faculty members and an MSIDT Alumni Association board member will participate in the review of the applications. Applicants must have completed at least one semester of the MSIDT program, and have demonstrated leadership in the MSIDT online learning community.

Open To: This scholarship is open to students currently enrolled in the MSIDT program.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Good academic standing ♦ Leadership

Application Procedure: 1) Submit a one-page cover sheet with the name, address, contact numbers, CWID and reason for the request for the scholarship in relation to your role as a graduate student in the MSIDT program; 2) Write a one-page document describing your leadership contribution to the MSIDT online learning community and how you intend to promote what you have learned in the program to others; 3) Provide a sealed letter of recommendation from an MSIDT faculty member; and, 4) Submit application materials to CP-570.

Application Deadline: March 5

Reading Educators Guild (REG) Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established by the alumni of the Reading Department to recognize and honor students for outstanding academic performance and potential for future leadership.

Open to: This scholarship is open to continuing College of Education students pursuing a Master's or reading specialist credential.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Essay

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the departmental application available on the Reading Department website: <http://ed.fullerton.edu/reading/scholarshipinfo.htm> ; 2) Write an essay stating how you have addressed your goal of becoming a reading professional and your future goals; and 3) Submit application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Robert Liebl Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded through the generosity of the Orange County Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children. It was established in memory of Robert Liebl, an outstanding Orange County Special Education teacher.

Open To: New or continuing Special Education Credential students who are current members of the Council for Exceptional Children

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA ♦ Desire to be a special education teacher ♦ Leadership

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide proof of membership to the Council for Exceptional Children; 3) Write a one-page essay describing what prompted you to be a special education teacher and how membership in the council for exceptional children has supported your goal; 4) Submit application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Fannie Shaftel Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established by Shirley Hill, professor emeritus of the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education in honor of Fannie Shaftel.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students who are accepted or enrolled in the Multiple Subject Teaching Credential Program.

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA ♦ Demonstrated professional aptitude for teaching

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Write a one page essay describing the four most important characteristics an exceptional elementary teacher should constantly strive to maintain; 3) Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

The Bernhard J. and Vivian W. Strand Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (two scholarships)

Established by: This scholarship was named for Bernhard and Vivian Strand who made life-long commitments to the public education system as both teachers and principals.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students who have been admitted to the Multiple Subject Credential Program.

Criteria: Academic potential ♦ Professional aptitude for teaching

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Prepare a one-page personal statement about your teaching goals; 3) Obtain two letters of recommendation from faculty; 4) Write a statement of financial need and how this scholarship will help you complete your career goals; and 5) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Theresa Kawase Rovira Teaching Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Larry Rovira to honor his wife, Theresa Kawase Rovira, a life-long educator. Both Mr. & Mrs. Rovira are dedicated CSUF alums. They wish to recognize students who exhibit true Titan Pride and who have provided leadership and service to the University through involvement in co-curricular activities while at CSUF.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing CSUF undergraduate, credential and graduate students who are pursuing a career in Education.

Criteria: Full-Time Enrollment ♦ Co-curricular Activities ♦ Good Academic Standing ♦ Community Service Activities ♦ Departmental and/or University Participation

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from CSUF faculty/staff; 3) Write a one-page essay or personal statement of achievement giving examples of your Titan Pride. Include what it has meant to you to attend CSUF and the impact the University has had on your life; and 4) Submit completed application to CP-700-25 c/o John Beisner.

Application Deadline: March 5

Baldwin Family Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Jane Ballback & Jan Slater, sisters who are both alumna of CSUF.

Open to: Open to new and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing a teaching credential, certificate, Master's or Ed.D degree.

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA or 3.2 graduate GPA ♦ Enrollment in College of Education ♦ Students who have supported themselves throughout their academic career

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty member or someone who can speak to your potential for a career in education; 3) Write a one page essay or personal statement regarding your goal of becoming an educator. Include information on how you have contributed to your own support during your academic career; and 4) Submit completed application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Schools-First Federal Credit Union Credential Student Scholarship

Amount: $3,000 (2 scholarships to be awarded)

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Schools First Credit Union.

Open to: Open to new and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing an initial teaching credential.

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA ♦ Enrollment in College of Education Credential Program ♦ Community Involvement ♦ Leadership

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/Current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty member or someone who can speak to your potential for a career in education; 3) Write a minimum one page essay or personal statement regarding your goal of becoming an educator and how you have served your community along the way; and 4) Submit completed application to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Miriam K. Herman Scholarship

Amount: $500

Established by: This scholarship was established in the name of Miriam K. Herman to assist students who are completing the Multiple Subject Teaching Credential Program.

Open to: This scholarship is open to graduating students from the Multiple Subject Credential Program who are completing their final semester in Spring or Fall 2012.

Criteria: Final semester of enrollment ♦ Multiple Subject Credential Program ♦ Statement

Application Procedures: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide a sealed letter of recommendation from a faculty member in the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education; 3) Write a minimum one-page statement that describes why you want to become an elementary teacher; and 4) Submit completed application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Emma E. Holmes – Master’s Program in Curriculum and Instruction Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Dr. Emma E. Holmes, professor emeritus of the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a master's degree with a concentration in curriculum and instruction.

Criteria: 3.2 GPA ♦ Commitment to high-quality teaching

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide a sealed letter of recommendation from a faculty member in the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education that addresses either your potential for teaching or your performance as an elementary teacher; 3) Write a one-page essay describing your reasons for pursuing the MSE in curriculum and instruction and how it will influence you teaching skills; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Emma E. Holmes – Multiple Subject Credential Program Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established and funded by Dr. Emma E. Holmes, professor emeritus of the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students admitted to or enrolled in the multiple subject credential program.

Criteria: 3.0 undergraduate GPA ♦ Commitment to high-quality teaching

Application procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Provide a sealed letter of recommendation from a faculty member that addresses either your potential for teaching or your performance as an elementary teacher; 3) Write a one-page essay describing what you plan to do to maintain high-quality teaching in your future classroom; and 4) Submit application materials to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Honor an Educator Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the generosity of donors who have made contributions in honor of educators who have made a difference in their lives or the lives of their students.

Open to: This scholarship is open to new and continuing College of Education students who are pursuing a teaching credential, certificate, Master's or Ed.D. degree.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Enrollment in College of Education ♦ Essay

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the College of Education Scholarship Application, available at <http://ed.fullerton.edu/current/scholarships.html> (please note: do not use the SA application on the Financial Aid website); 2) Obtain one CSUF faculty recommendation regarding your professional aptitude for the field of education; 3) Write a one-page essay about what or who inspired you to become a teacher and how you hope to inspire your future students; and 4) Submit application materials to CP- 500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

Dorothy C. Klausner Reading Educator Scholarship

Amount: $800

Established by: This scholarship was established by Deborah Hancock in honor of Dorothy C. Klausner to recognize and honor graduate students who have demonstrated outstanding academic performance.

Open to: This scholarship is open to students pursuing a Master's Degree in Reading Education or a Reading/Language Arts Specialist Credential.

Criteria: 3.0 GPA ♦ Statement

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the departmental application available on the reading department website: <http://ed.fullerton.edu/reading/scholarshipinfo.htm>; 2) Write a 2-page statement that explains your career goals and why you are applying for this scholarship, including evidence of academic and professional potential and financial need; and 3) submit completed application with your typed statement to CP-500 c/o Aimee Nelson.

Application Deadline: March 5

MAST Scholarship for Future Science Teachers (Science Major)

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the Mathematics and Science Teacher Project to support students who are majoring in a science field and pursuing a career in teaching.

Open to: This scholarship is open to CSU Fullerton junior, senior, or graduated science majors who are pursuing a career in teaching secondary (grades 7-12) science. Four (4) scholarships are available.

Criteria: Junior or senior status ♦ 3.0 GPA ♦ pursuing or planning to pursue a single subject teaching credential in chemistry, biology, earth sciences, or physics ♦ completion of at least one prerequisite to the Single Subject Credential Program (i.e., EDSC 304, 310, 320, 330, or 340).

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer-ing all seven questions, and sign the certification; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from CSUF Faculty/Staff; 3) Compose a 500-word statement about your reasons for pursuing a career in teaching science; and 4) In a sealed envelope, submit the application materials to the Department of Secondary Education, CP-600, Attn: Ms. Tara Barnhart, (tbarnhart@fullerton.edu)

Application Deadline: March 16

MAST Scholarship for Future Science Teachers (Minor in Natural Sciences)

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is funded by the Mathematics and Science Teacher Project to support students who are minoring in the Natural Sciences and pursuing a single subject science teaching credential.

Open to: This scholarship is open to CSU Fullerton junior, senior, or graduated Minor in Natural Science candidates who are pursuing a single subject teaching credential. Two scholarships are available.

Criteria: Junior or senior status ♦ 3.0 GPA ♦ pursuing or planning to pursue a single subject teaching credential in chemistry, biology, earth sciences, or physics ♦ completion of at least one prerequisite to the Single Subject Credential Program (i.e., EDSC 304, 310, 320, 330, or 340).

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, answer-ing all seven questions, and sign the certification; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from CSUF Faculty/Staff; 3) Compose a 500-word statement about your reasons for pursuing a career in teaching science; and 4) In a sealed envelope, submit the application materials to the Department of Secondary Education, CP-600, Attn: Ms. Tara Barnhart, (tbarnhart@fullerton.edu)

Application Deadline: March 16