

graduate forum

Sustainable Futures: Diversity & Green Initiatives in Graduate Education

Thursday, February 18, 2010

Pollak Library

call for submissions

Deadline February 1, 2010

The office of Graduate Studies at Cal State Fullerton is calling for entries of posters or mini-exhibits to be put on display at the upcoming graduate forum on sustainability.

Need some advice on making the poster?
www.asp.org/education/howto_onPosters.html <http://sustainability.aiga.org>

topics

sustainability: the capacity to endure—its definition and application to every facet of life sustainability and...

environment—global citizenship & architecture, urban planning, engineering education—a critical factor in national prosperity & global competitiveness culture—enduring cultural traditions vs. effects of innovation economics—importance of scientific and technological enterprise society—long-term maintenance of wellbeing art—sustainability in the creative process to submit

To submit your poster, or mini-exhibit, send the following by February 1, 2010 to kpowers@fullerton.edu

1. Author(s) Name (You can only be first author on one poster or display, but you can co-author other submissions.)
2. Author(s) Affiliation
3. Poster/Exhibit Title
4. Indicate if your submission is for a Poster or an Exhibit
5. An abstract not to exceed 250 words
6. Three Key Words

specs

Posters should be 36" wide x 24" tall when folded

For more details visit <http://faculty.ucr.edu/~maryb/poster.htm>

Displays can be multimedia presentations, graphic exhibits, etc—but should be limited to 36" x 24"

$100 award

 for the top 3 posters/exhibits!

Graduate Forum is funded by a U.S. Dept. of Education's FIPSE grant and co-organized by the Center for Sustainability, Environmental Studies Program, Associate Vice President for Graduate Programs and Research, Graduate Studies Office and Office of University Research, Initiatives and Partnerships