About the course:

This is a required one-unit course that has been designed to support you as you work on your senior honors project.

Requirements and Evaluation:

Class attendance is required and will be one-half of your final grade. This includes attendance at two senior honors project presentations at the end of the semester. Your other major responsibility will be to submit a five-page progress report on your senior honors project work so far. Alternatively, you may submit a revised project proposal to fulfill this assignment. This written work is due December 9. Students who are completing their senior honors project this semester are excused from the essay assignment.

Class Meetings:

September 2 Introduction to the course

October 14 Senior Project Support

Please bring a short written statement which summarizes work so far on your senior project. You can mention major successes and major frustrations. You will share this statement with members of your cohort and the cohorts will report the results of their discussions to the entire class.

November 18 Senior Project Support

Identify progress on problems noted at the October 14 meeting.

December 2 Senior Honors Project Presentations (date is tentative)

December 9 Senior Honors Project Presentations (date is tentative)
Project Progress Report or Revised Proposal is due
