International Education Week Celebration

Wednesday, November 14, 2001

Going Global Sessions

all in the Academic Senate Chambers

Join Us and Go Global through…

- 10:00-10:50am -- Managing Culture Shock Mindfully
- 11:00-11:50am -- Study Abroad and Community Service
- 12pm-1pm – Learning About Ourselves through Others
- 1:00-2:50pm – Without Leaving Home: A Simulation
- 3:00-3:50pm – International Careers

“Going Global: Log On & Share”

Web Project

11am-4pm

Using technology, you can share your international or cultural experiences, family stories and traditions, international recipes, and more through an innovative website project sponsored by a student organization, “Families Across Cultures”. A computer station will be available immediately outside the Academic Senate Chambers for those interested to log on and share your stories and experiences.

Global Opportunities Expo

10am–3pm, Lawn East of Titan Bookstore

Student clubs, community organizations and faculty involved in international and exchange programs will be displaying brochures and other promotional materials. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to learn about the global curricula offered on campus, and to participate in the array of international education opportunities through extra-curricular activities.

“Building A Better World”

Banner Project, 10am–3pm, Lawn East of Titan Bookstore

We invite you to stop by the Global Expo and help decorate this banner by expressing your hopes and suggestions for building a better world. The finished banner will be displayed prominently on campus after the day’s celebration.

Phi Beta Delta Induction Ceremony

4pm-6pm, Academic Senate Chambers

The day will culminate with a panel discussion “Perspectives on America in the World”, featuring John R. Malott, Cal State Fullerton Diplomat-in-Residence and former U.S. Ambassador to Malaysia, Steve Browning, Diplomat-in-Residence at the University of Southern California, along with a panel of distinguished Cal State Fullerton faculty.
