The goal of this week is to raise awareness of global and multicultural issues, international education and leadership by providing fun and informative events for all students, faculty and staff.

Multicultural Leadership Center

VISION:
To foster the personal, social, cultural, and academic well being of our culturally diverse student body.

MISSION:
The mission of the Multicultural Leadership Center is to develop leaders who will understand and embrace diversity. The MLC seeks to create learning environments that actively engage the campus community with in and out of classroom experiences through the education and celebration of diversity and multiculturalism. The MLC provides services through three primary areas, 1) Resources, 2) Programming and 3) Leadership Diversity Training.

Office of International Education and Exchange

VISION:
The Office of International Education and Exchange supports the mission of the University and Student Affairs by advocating for and building a global perspective.

MISSION:
As a collaborative and creative resource center for the campus and community, we strive to:
• Provide the finest student-centered services with genuine sensitivity to the needs of students transitioning between countries and cultures.
• Uphold the highest professional standards in an environment of mutual understanding and respect.
• Empower students to reach their full educational and professional potential through participation in international and intercultural experiences.

Highlighted Events

Association for Inter-Cultural Awareness/AICA-ASI, Inc., presents a night of culture, food, fashion and fun.

Workshops
A series of workshops designed to provide diversity, international education, multicultural and leadership experiences are offered throughout the week.

Closing Ceremony
The week will culminate with a special ceremony, featuring a media montage presentation of the week’s events, and special recognitions of the Essay Contest winners. There will be a reception featuring international food, which will afford an opportunity for all of the participants to join in the week’s programs to come together and celebrate their success.

Student Essay Contest
In preparation and celebration for this week, a Student Essay Contest has been launched, inviting students to write on the topic “Does Peace Begin With Me?” Phi Beta Delta, honor society for International Scholars, will conduct its semi-annual induction program and reception, featuring a keynote to be given by the Consul General of France, Mr. Jean-Luc Milhau.

AICA Symposium & Fashion Show
A symposium on diversity in international education, multicultural and leadership experiences is offered throughout the week.

Multicultural Leadership Resource Fair
Come and visit various cultural/ethnic clubs as well as campus service centers, learn what they have to offer and treat yourself to some cultural sweets.
