

Dear International Student:

If you are planning to graduate in the Fall 2009 semester and have not passed the EWP test, please reply to this email by answering the questions below.

Please note that you must pass the English Writing Proficiency test (EWP) or have successfully completed English 199 (or an equivalent course determined by your major department), in order to be eligible to graduate. Satisfying the EWP requirement is also required when applying for post-completion Optional Practical Training (OPT).
