Cross Cultural Conversations

Thursday, October 8, 2009, 2:30pm-3:30pm, IEE Meeting room UH 242

Come join us as we discuss “Academic Success.” Come learn of the resources available on campus to help maintain your academic life. Listen and share with other students about how one manages their academic life and their everyday life.

Please contact Kristina Londy for any questions zz-klondy@fullerton.edu.

International Student Association (ISA) – Welcome Events this week!

Wednesday, October 7 and Friday, October 9, 11:00am – 1:00pm, at Aloha Java (green tent area between University Hall and Humanities Building; same spot as the International Coffeebreak)

Come and find out about the International Student Association. Be part of the fun by sharing your ideas and helping to plan some activities for the Fall semester. Join now and become a member of this Cal State Fullerton student club! Membership information and forms will be available at the Welcome Events this week. Just look for the table with the ISA sign on either day. For more information, email csufullerton.isa@gmail.com.

Job Search Skills & Strategies for International Students: An Employer's View

Friday, October 16, 2:00-3:30pm, SGMH 2501

Meet employers who have offered employment opportunities to F1 students on Optional Practical Training (OPT). Find out directly from employers the tips and challenges on finding post-graduation employment in the US. This workshop is sponsored by the IEE Office & the Career Center. To sign-up, please email ieoffice@fullerton.edu by 12:00pm prior to the workshop (SUBJECT: Job Search Workshop 10/16/2009, Name, CSUF ID).

IEE Office will be closed on Friday, October 9, 2009.

Due to severe cuts in state funding, October 9 is a designated furlough day when most offices, including the IEE Office, are closed. For more information about future furlough days, visit:
