“Celebrating Holidays: The Importance of Food in Different Cultures”

Thursday, November 6, 2008

11:30am – 12:45pm

University Hall-Room 242

Establish friendships, relationships, and networking opportunities as we celebrate the holidays and discuss the importance of food in different cultures.

This will be a potluck-style event where you can bring food and share with others.

You are welcome to drop-off your food item or beverage(s) at the IEE Office between 8:30am-11:30am, so that you do not need to worry about carrying food items to your classes.

Please sign-up by sending an email to ieoffice@fullerton.edu (SUBJECT: CCC-11/6/08, Name, and CWID). In your email, please specify type of food item you will bring---main dish, salad, appetizer, fruit, dessert or beverages.

Please contact the IEE office for any questions.
