

Connect to Your Student Email: Mac Mail (Yosemite)

OS X Yosemite (and above)

1 If you are opening Mail for the first time, a window will appear to add an account. Choose the Google account and click Continue.

NOTE: You can also add an account by clicking Mail and then selecting Accounts. Then, click on the + sign to add a new account.

2 Enter your student email information using your full @csu.fullerton.edu email address.

3 Log in using your campus username and password. Click sign in.

The image shows the Titan Apps login interface. At the top, the text "Titan Apps" is displayed in a large, blue, sans-serif font. Below this, there is a white rectangular form with a thin border. Inside the form, the label "Username" is positioned above a text input field containing the text "tuffytitan". Below the username field, the label "Password" is positioned above a password input field filled with ten dots. At the bottom of the form, there is a red rectangular button with the text "Sign In" in white.

4 Click Accept.

The image shows an OS X system dialog box titled "OS X would like to:". The dialog lists several permissions with corresponding icons and information icons. The permissions are: "View and manage your mail" (with a red envelope icon), "View your email address" (with a blue person icon), "View your basic profile info" (with a blue person icon), "Manage your calendars" (with a blue calendar icon), "View and send chat messages" (with a blue speech bubble icon), and "Manage your contacts" (with a blue speech bubble icon). Below the list, there is a paragraph of text: "By clicking Accept, you allow this app and Google to use your information in accordance with their respective terms of service and privacy policies. You can change this and other Account Permissions at any time." At the bottom of the dialog, there are two buttons: a grey "Cancel" button and a blue "Accept" button with a red border. A "Cancel" button is also visible at the bottom left of the dialog's frame.
