Federal Work Study Employer Questions & Answers

1875/1876 Summer or 1871/1872 Fall and Spring or 1151 Instructional Aid

How does a student apply for Federal Work Study?

- First apply for a PIN to electronically sign FAFSA (www.pin.ed.gov).
- Both student and parent should apply for a pin.
- Complete FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov) or paper form by March 2nd.

How do I know if a student has an FWS award?

• The student will bring their TITAN online award summary to the interview as instructed (on our website http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/fws/fwsempinfo.htm)

How is the rate of pay for the student's position determined?

- The position title and rate of pay on the confirmation ticket need to match with the position description we have on file with that position title and reporting unit.
 - May not be paid more or less for than assigned range.

When may a student begin working?

- When the following steps are completed;
 - Financial Aid receives the original Confirmation Ticket and approves the hire.
 - Financial Aid sends email to the employer to notify of approval.
 - Financial Aid forwards the Original Confirmation Ticket to Payroll.
 - Payroll sends email to employer authorizing student to begin working.
 - Only new students must go to Payroll Services to complete the required hiring documents, BEFORE they may begin to work.

How much may an FWS student earn and when?

- The FWS award amount is the maximum dollars a student may earn.
 - 20% of the award may be earned in July and August (1875/1876 or 1151).
 - Half of the remaining award may be earned in fall and half in spring (1871/1872).

How many units must an FWS student take to maintain eligibility?

 \circ Six units or half time enrollment is the federal requirement.

How is the Student Assistant program different from the Federal Work Study?

- \circ As an employer you pay 100% of the student assistant earnings.
- With FWS student earnings the federal government pays 75% and you pay only 25%.