Slide notes
The Student System is being upgraded. This presentation will highlight the features of the Student Center accessible through New Titan Online. The Student Center will launch on March 10, 2008.
The Student Center will gradually replace all current Titan Online functionality, including registration, fee payment and financial aid status, and will provide some new functionality such as updating addresses and phone numbers.
The transition to the “New Titan Online” will be complete by September 2008.
Beginning with Fall 2008 registration, we will be introducing wait-listing for classes in the College of Business. By Spring 2009, we hope to expand wait-listing to all classes in all colleges.
This May, another web tutorial covering registration and fee payment will be available.
Today we’ll review what will be available on launch day, March 10th.
To maximize your viewing experience of this tutorial, please either turn on the sound or turn on the closed captioning feature located in the control panel on the bottom right of your screen.
Slide notes

To get to New Titan Online, login to the portal by typing in your user name and password.
Slide notes

You will notice that there is a Titan Online tab and also a New Titan Online tab. The current Titan Online will remain available until the end of 2008. During this period of transition if you’re unsure which tab to use, try the current one first and if that function has migrated to the New Titan Online, you will see information telling you to use the new system. Let’s go take a look at the New Titan Online.
Slide notes

When you click on the tab, a new browser window opens where you can access your Student Center. The Student Center provides a “home base” for accessing your student information. Before we enter the Student Center, let’s take a look at the features on this page. Notice the “Home” and “Logout” buttons in the upper right corner. If you are in the Student Center and want to come back to this start page, you can always click on “Home.”
It's a good idea to read any announcements in the System Messages section. There may be important instructions.
Slide notes

You can view a PDF version of the hard-copy course catalog and search the class schedule in real time.
Slide notes

Under the Training Resources section, we will provide updated information as new features become available in the Student Center.
Slide notes

The Campus Resources section has useful links to services on campus.

Slide notes

You will be given information about what features you can expect to see and when.
Now let's go into the Student Center. Select the "Student Center" link.
Welcome to the Student Center. You can access your school information all from this one location. Currently you can view personal information about yourself that the campus has on record. Notice the "Home" and "Logout" buttons are still in the upper right hand corner. Remember you can use the "Home" button to get back to the start page we just left.
Your contact information is displayed, including your home address, mailing address, home phone, and email address. You can click on the visible links to see more information. Let's select the "home address" link.
All the addresses that the campus has on record will be displayed. Beginning September 2008 you'll be able to update your addresses online. CSUF will always send student mail to your "mail address," if provided. Otherwise, student mail will be sent to your "home address." Please make sure to keep your mail address current.
Instead of using the "back" button to return to the previous page, click on the double arrow icon.

Slide notes

If you use the back button on your web browser to navigate, you'll receive this warning page and the only way to return to the Student Center is by clicking on the home button which will bring you to the New Titan Online start page.

In the Course Attribute field, type in "GE" for General Education classes.
Click on the magnifying glass, next to the Course Attribute Value to select the specific GE category you want in your search.
