

Modern Life in Japan

Human Development through Early Education

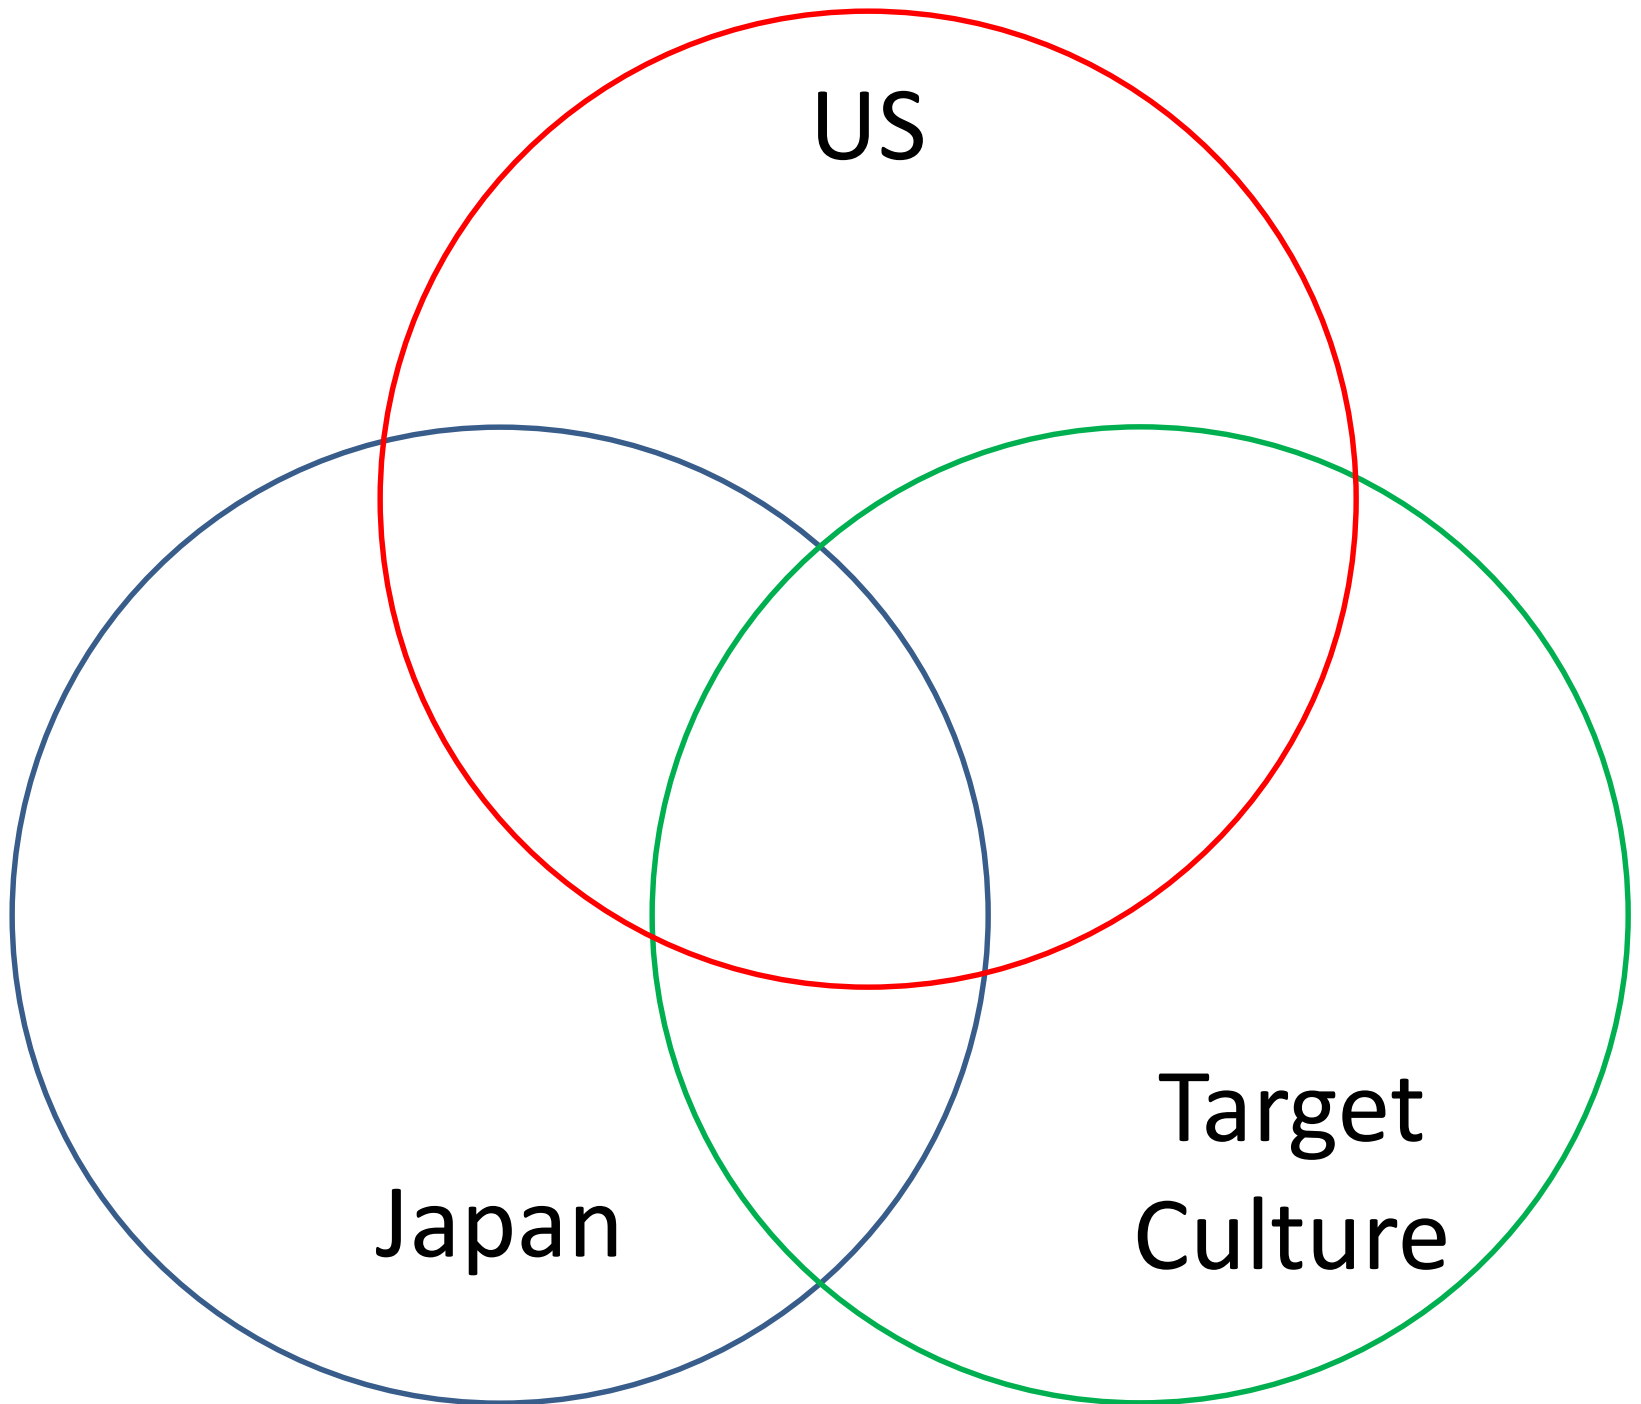

Maki Isoyama

Department of MLL

4/16/2015

Today's Goals

- At the end of this session, you will be able to:
 - Demonstrate understanding of how human development efforts at early education in Japan are made
 - Through comparison among three cultures – Japan, US, and the country of your target language.
 - Deepen your understanding of early education cultures of US and the country of your target languages.

US

Japan

Target
Culture

Overarching questions

- How do children learn independence and responsibility in Japan?
 - The elder help the younger
 - Keep community clean
 - Do things on their own

Commute

- How do children go to school in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Bus
 - Guardian's car
 - Train
 - Walk
- Why?

Commute

- http://www.tjf.or.jp/shogakusei/6-1/donna/ichinichi_e.htm

Commute

Commute

Commute

Commute

Commute

- What do you think children learn through this practice?
 - How do children learn them in US and/or the country of your target language?
- Do you think this practice can be applied to schools in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Why? Why not?

Lunch Time

- Where do children eat lunch at school in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Cafeteria?
 - Playground?
 - Classroom?
- Where and how do children get their lunch in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Lunch box?
 - Cafeteria?
 - Vendor outside school?
- Why?

Lunch Time

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZfH5Luaj0ql>
- http://www.tjf.or.jp/shogakusei/6-1/donna/ichinichi_e.htm

Lunch Time

Lunch Time

Lunch Time

Lunch Time

- What do you think children learn through this practice?
 - How do children learn them in US and/or the country of your target language?
- Do you think this practice can be applied to schools in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Why? Why not?

Cleaning

- Who cleans schools in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Janitor?
 - Volunteer parents?
- Why?

Cleaning

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6bJ8ILfTtdk>
- http://www.tjf.or.jp/shogakusei/6-1/donna/ichinichi_e.htm

Cleaning

Cleaning

Cleaning

Cleaning

- What do you think children learn through this practice?
 - How do children learn them in US and/or the country of your target language?
- Do you think this practice can be applied to schools in US and/or the country of your target language?
 - Why? Why not?

10 years later

Why?

Today's Goals

- At the end of this session, you will be able to:
 - Demonstrate understanding of how human development efforts at early education in Japan are made
 - Through comparison among three cultures – Japan, US, and the country of your target language.
 - Deepen your understanding of early education cultures of US and the country of your target languages.