

Prior Knowledge – Post-it Activity

1. Form triads.
2. Select one person to be the writer and two people to be the contributors.
3. The writer does not speak. The writer writes down all the ideas of the contributors.
4. Each idea is written on a separate post-it note.
5. The writer may not insert his or her own ideas on the post-its.
6. The contributors will alternate.
7. Work as quickly as possible. You have 2 minutes.

QUESTION: What comes to your mind when you think of _____?