

Greetings,

This is a survey to assess community needs for Asian and Pacific Islander language resources and to create an inventory of the existing Asian and Pacific Islander language resources used by community organizations. You are being asked to participate in this study because of your experiences working in a community organization that serves Asian Americans or Pacific Islanders.

Participation in this research study is completely voluntary. Please read the attached consent form and then take the survey by clicking the link below. By completing the attached survey, you are agreeing to participate in this research study.
