DATA COLLECTION METHODS
• Surveys

METHODS AND MEASURES
This knowledge includes understanding the history, mission, and purpose of student affairs; identifying various type and structures within higher education; and an understanding of NASPA’s organization and structure. We will administer a pre-, mid-year, and post- survey to collect data on fellow’s increased knowledge of student affairs and higher education which will be given to all 10 fellows. Additionally, fellows will attend monthly cohort workshop and an opportunity to attend both regional and national NASPA conference which information on student affairs and higher education will be shared.

CRITERIA OF SUCCESS
• 80% of fellows will understand the history, mission, and purpose of student affairs
• 80% of fellows will identify various types and structures within higher education
• 80% of fellows will understand NASPA’s organization and structure

DATA COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS
The following surveys were distributed throughout the academic year:
• NUFP Pre-Survey
• NUFP Mid-Year Survey
• NUFP Post-Survey
The pre-, mid-, and post-survey revealed an increase in students understanding of the purpose of student affairs, history and mission of student affairs, various institutional types and structures in higher education, and NASPA’s organization and structure. All three criteria for success were met with by the fellows.

- 100% of students strongly agreed or agreed they understood the purpose of student affairs and 100% strongly agreed or agreed they understand the history and mission of student affairs (post-survey data)
- 100% of students strongly agreed or agreed they understood the various institutional types and structures within higher education (post-survey data)
- 85.7% of fellows strongly agreed or agreed they understood NASPA’s organization and structure (post-survey data)

IMPROVEMENT ACTIONS

For the following year, the NUFP program personnel plans on using similar programming for its next cohort to continue to meet its goals in this learning outcome. A plan will be developed for next year’s workshops and retreats. NUFP will continue to support its fellows by providing opportunities to attend workshops, conferences and additional resources.
