$430

Campus Student Body Center Fee: Purpose

- Fund all operations of the Titan Student Centers
- Operation of the ~160,000 sq. ft. Titan Student Union which includes the newly opened TSU addition along with renovation and upgrades to several building systems, all without an increase to the Campus Union Fee
- Operation of the 95,000 sq. ft. Student Recreation Center
- Operation of the Irvine Campus Fitness Center and Lounge
- Repayment of bond obligations associated with construction of the student union and recreation center facilities
- Funding reserves for the future construction, repair, and maintenance needs of these facilities
Repayment of Bond Obligations

• Two bond obligations
  – TSU expansion 1992: will be retired in 2021
  – SRC completed 2008: will be retired in 2038

• Favorable refinancing of SRC in August 2015 at a substantially reduced interest rate, from 5% fixed to a variable rate of 3% (maximum rate is 5%).

• Current obligations: $25,110,000
• Current year: $2,350,000 - reflecting May 2016 savings
  – After 2021: approximately $1,705,000 annually remaining for SRC only
Debt Service Coverage Ratio

- ASI has the requirement to exceed a 1.10 DSCR per CSU Finance & Treasury guidelines
- DSCR is estimated for 2015/2016 at 1.34 depending on fund contributions
- DSCR is expected to remain above a 1.25 ratio through fiscal year 2019
Funding Reserves
Executive Order 994: CSU Financing and Debt Management Policy

The following funds are held in trust by CSUF:

- Revenue Fund (TCUOP) $5.47M at 11/23/16 Used to disburse semi-annual bond payments and support TSC annual budget
- Interest and Redemption Fund (Held by CO) Used for debt obligation payments at the CO
- Repair and Replacement Fund (TCUMR) $869K at 11/23/16 Provides funding for building and equipment repair/replacement
- Construction Fund (TCUCN-TSCCP) $1.47M at 11/23/16 Established to provide construction funding as an alternative or in conjunction with bond funding (considered equity funding)
- Catastrophic Fund (TCUCE) $2.4M at 10/31/16 To be used in the event of unanticipated events such as a natural disaster
