IV. TIME CERTAIN
12:00 NOON
Topic: Faculty Housing – University Heights
Discussant: Mr. Stephen G. Garcia
Interim Vice President for Administration and Finance/CFO

Chair Bedell welcomed Mr. García to discuss the faculty housing controversy as well as to give an update for on the campus ban on smoking to go into effect 8-1-13.

Mr. García began with the current status of impending implementation of the smoking directive. By necessity, CSUF Administration is delaying release of information while presentations and negotiations are being made with one union and its membership. Notice was given 3-27-13, as well as involvement with the Chancellor’s Office on 3-22-13. All but one union have been silent. A “meet and confer” is scheduled for 5-30-13. The committee is eager to move forward with efficacy, outreach, education, training, etc.; however, the process must be followed.

Mr. García gave an overview of the unfortunate situation involving University Heights and the impact the down turn in the housing market had on University Heights which resulted in unhappy and disgruntled faculty. The University intention was to create an option of affordable housing for faculty who came into the area and create a sense of community. 16 homes were sold, 9 of which were sold directly to CSUF faculty/employees and 6 sold to outside educators. 26 homes were not sold. The rest of the homes had to be leased. There was a large difference between University Gables and University Heights in the land value itself. The University Gables land was purchased for $1.00 from the city of Buena Park to assist them in their affordable housing requirements and to assist CSUF with their housing needs for faculty and staff. The land for University Heights was purchased at fair market value or at a cost of approximately $4.8 million, which added a cost to all the homes that were built. The housing market took a down turn and construction costs went up, which resulted in higher home prices. The Housing Authority invested in homes that could not be sold as a result of the market down turn and had to seek a construction loan for the houses that had been built and not sold. The loan was approximately $14 million which was arranged through the California State University System. The homes could not be sold because construction costs increased from a target price of $350K to actual price of $490K - $600K, depending on the model. The Housing Authority started leasing the popular, stylish homes that had been constructed and not sold to provide cash flow to pay for the construction loan. Most homes were leased out and, as a result, the Housing Authority had an extremely low vacancy rate. Negotiations are in progress between the Housing Authority with an outside investor that may purchase the property. The Housing Authority is still on the hook for an additional 99 year annuity that has to be paid for 99 years at a value of $1.5 million to the Elks Lodge because a premium was paid for the land, including building the Elk’s Lodge for approximately $4 million. If the Housing Authority sells the University Heights project, approximately $11 million dollars will be paid, which leaves approximately $3 to $4 million that the Housing Authority still has to pay above the selling price. The Housing Authority has minimal assets and as a result, the Auxiliary Services Corporation would have to make up the difference, which would affect other areas that ASC funds such as research.

Regarding report back to the Academic Senate, the Executive Committee sees no need for a resolution at this time. The Chair’s Report will include a statement about University Heights, and the meeting with VP García.
The EC supports full and open transparency on all matters, engaging in collegial conversations. Given the rising housing market, the EC sees no need to rush into selling the property to a 3rd party.

Chair Bedell thanked Mr. García for his willingness to meet with Executive Committee.
