         1. From Mark Stohs, Chair Academic Senate:
            The Information Technology Committee should review these documents and see whether there are any suggestions that can/should be implemented – either this semester or next year. CSUF’s on-line courses/program is an on-going topic, so in that sense there’s no serious urgency. However, the WSCUC accreditation is mostly likely going to examine our on-line approach and take it seriously. So attention to the broader issues (and eventually details) would be useful.
            1. Sub-committee met and came up with a draft for the committee to review.
               a. Concerns:
                  i. Section 8: Confirmed by Amir
                  ii. Section 6 and 7: Committee will review – regarding what are the requirements for Faculty to teach online
                  iii. Section 11: Committee will review – Faculty workload issues
               c. IP Policy
