

Resolution for Sandi Rhoten

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has served as the Cal State Fullerton Judicial Affairs officer for 17 years, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has adjudicated more than 7,000 cases during that time, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has presented hundreds of workshops to faculty and students in her effort to educate the campus community about academic integrity, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has served as a member of the Academic Senate for 15 years, both as a representative of her constituency and as an at-large member, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has served on numerous campus committees, including the Student Academic Life Committee, which she served on for 16 years, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten co-authored the campus UPS Commitment to Civility with former Senate chair Jack Bedell, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has served as both a Skelly Hearing Officer and Title IX Investigator, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has been responsible for the production of educational resources to promote student success, including pamphlets, posters, tutorials, videos, DVDs, and websites, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten received a Bronze Excellence award in 2008 for her work on these resources from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and

Whereas: Sandi Rhoten has distinguished herself within her profession by serving as an officer and active member of organizations such as the Association of Conduct Administrators, the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and the CSU Judicial Officers, and

Whereas: Despite her tough, no-nonsense exterior, Sandi is really a softie at heart, as evidenced by her compassion for students, her great sense of humor, and her ability to make friends wherever she goes, and

Whereas: Within Student Affairs, Sandi is known as the queen of holiday celebrations, decorating her office for every holiday known to Hallmark and even serving for many years as the emcee for the division's December holiday party, and

Whereas: While Sandi has spent many years living in metropolitan areas, she has never lost touch with her Iowa farm girl roots, as evidenced by the many replicas of cows that adorn both her office and home,

Be it resolved: That the members of the Academic Senate and the faculty, staff, administrators, and students of Cal State Fullerton thank Sandi profusely for her service to the University. We wish her many years of happiness and new adventures upon her retirement from CSUF and the start of the next chapter in her life.
