

Resolution Honoring Senator Walsh's Service and Leadership to CSU Fullerton Academic Senate

- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has served on the Academic Senate and the Senate Executive Committee in various roles over the past decade; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh's leadership benefited from her years of service as a professor and chair of the Department of Sociology and before that, 20 years of professional work for the County of Orange; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh's leadership skills were recognized with the 2019 University Leadership Award; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has been advocating for diversity, equity and inclusion for more than two decades, including examining issues of race, gender and class in her dissertation; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has been the most enjoyable company for lunch at our local Rutabegorz; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has role modeled humility, flexibility, and inclusion; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has advocated tirelessly for students and faculty; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh has brought her smile, laughter, and humor in her role as Senate Chair; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh strived to be inclusive in running meetings by not exactly always following Robert's Rules of Order to the benefit of the body; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh may no longer be Senate chair, but we're not letting her get out of Exec meetings that easily; and
- Whereas: The adorability of the Chair grandchildren veritably spiked during her time in services; and
- Whereas: Dr. Walsh was never afraid to speak her mind but always had an open ear to other perspectives; therefore, be it
- Resolved: That Dr. Eileen Walsh holds a special place in the hearts and minds of students, faculty, staff, and administrators for her service to CSUF; and be it further
- Resolved: That the CSUF Academic Senate expresses its appreciation to Senator Walsh for her service to CSUF as Senate Chair, but reserves the right to express further appreciation for future service to CSUF.
