

Optometry

Optometrists from the Southern California College of Optometry see students in the Student Health and Counseling Center two half-days per week. They perform complete eye exams, as well as diagnose and treat ocular problems. More information about the Southern California College of Optometry can be found at <http://www.scco.edu>.