LISTEN
UNDERSTAND ADVOCATE

SPEAKER
TYLER D. PARRY

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUMMIT
2017
CSUF
FEB 25
8:30AM-5PM
TITAN STUDENT UNION PAVILION
PRESENTED BY Students ACT

REGISTER AT
www.fullerton.edu/sll/events/socialjusticesummit.php
LISTEN.
9:00AM-10:30AM

GABRIELINO

DREAMER PANEL

ZAIRA LAGUNA, CSUF
Panelists share their experiences as dreamers in higher education.

GILMAN

MENTAL HEALTH IN THE TRANSGENDER POPULATION

DAI GUERRA, CSUF
Understand how a campus climate can affect transgender students and gain an understanding of the transgender community. Participants will develop general knowledge about ways to achieve inclusivity in their spaces.
ONTIVEROS

THE POWER OF KNOWLEDGE: HIGHER EDUCATION, REINTEGRATION, AND LIBERATION

ROMARILYN RALSTON, CSUF
Learn about the social impact of higher education both in and out of prison. Panelists will discuss how education is creating different social outcomes in their lives.

HETEBRINK

PRESERVING CULTURE IN A MULTICULTURAL WORLD

TOUBEE YANG, CSUF
How do we keep our own culture alive in an ever-changing society? Explore the importance of cultural competency and embracing diversity in a society encouraging individualization and global engagement.
HUNGRY, HOMELESS, BUT NOT HELPLESS! RISING POVERTY AMONG CSU STUDENTS OF ALL COLORS

STEVE TEIXEIRA AND JEFF MUNOZ-O’LAUGHLIN, CSULA

Across California, poverty, hunger and homelessness among CSU students has called for the attention of the media and of leaders in education and government. Learn about the economic changes that contribute to family and student hunger and homelessness, as well as the social and political movements that are developing around this issue.
UNDERSTAND.
10:40AM-12:10PM

GILMAN

DISSOLVING THE BEAUTY MYTH: THE ORIGINS OF BEAUTY AND THE MEDIA’S IMPACT

YAA ASANTEWAA FARAJI, CSUF

Spoken word poetry, video clips and an interactive presentation will help participants differentiate media influences from traditional disciplines of beauty. Explore the media’s influence on body image, and trace traditional “on trend” beauty influences to their origins.

PAVILION A

SCULPTING RACE

JOY HOFFMAN, CSUF

Most people could have healthier conversations around race. In this interactive session, participants will learn about racial identity development and how they can better interact and work with people from different life experiences.
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AMONG ASIAN AMERICAN WOMEN

VY LE AND JONATHAN NGUYEN, CSUF

Domestic violence has been a continuing issue in the Asian American community. Unfortunately, due to cultural stigmas, domestic violence and its detrimental effect on Asian American women are often ignored. Explore the reasons behind domestic violence in the Asian American community and the impact it has on Asian American women today.

SHOULD WE STILL STUDY SLAVERY?

TYLER D. PARRY, PH.D, CSUF

Why is the study of slavery still pertinent to understanding contemporary politics, both in the US and throughout the world? This workshop will provide a history of global slave regimes and demonstrate how studies of slavery can inform our understanding of current oppression.
KEEPING THE GROUP IN CHECK: UNDERSTANDING APATHY IN SOCIAL JUSTICE

Xochitl Morales and Adriana Valencia Wences, CSUF

Why are people apathetic toward social justice issues? Have you encountered apathy from the people around you? Explore why apathy happens, and how to get people invested in a cause they do not understand.

LUNCH
12:15PM-12:55PM
DISCUSS.
1:00PM-1:45PM

PAVILION A

ISLAMOPHOBIA

GABRIELINO

FREEDOM OF SPEECH, WHAT IS IT?

ONTIVEROS

BLACK LIVES MATTER

ALVARADO

IMMIGRATION
BRADFORD

LEFT, RIGHT, WHAT’S IN BETWEEN? FINDING COMPROMISE IN POLITICAL DIFFERENCES

HETEBRINK

WOMEN’S HEALTH

GILMAN

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

TUFFREE

BULLYING
SPORTS ACTIVISM

TRIMAINÉ DAVIS, CSUF

Examine the influences and sacrifices of student-athletes and professional athletes in their struggle for liberation and equity for marginalized people. This presentation will highlight the power of celebrity and the intersection between race, society, and athletics in the fight for social justice.

STEP UP 2.0

ALYSSA AVILA, CSUF

What is consent and how do you recognize sexual assault, domestic violence or stalking? Learn about bystander intervention strategies that can keep people safe and discuss ways that our language and culture impacts sexual violence.
ELIMINATING THE PRISON PIPELINE: REORGANIZING THE EDUCATION SYSTEM

MAHDEE H. GILL AND GWENDOLYN ALEXIS, CSUF

What is consent and how do you recognize sexual assault, domestic violence or stalking? Learn about bystander intervention strategies that can keep people safe and discuss ways that our language and culture impacts sexual violence.

SEEING ABILITY – ADVOCACY AND ALLYSHIP FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

PATRICK RAMIREZ AND HANNAH ELLIOTT, CSUF
KEYNOTE SPEAKER
3:30PM-5:00PM

PAVILIONS B/C

THE PATH FORWARD: CONFRONTING OPPRESSION AND ITS LEGACIES

TYLER D. PARRY, CSUF