

Matrix Notes

Theory	View of Society	View of individual	View of Social Change
Conflict Theory	Groups competing for scarce resources	People shaped by social institutions	Change is inevitable & continuous
Functionalism	System of interrelated & interdependent parts	People shaped by society to perform functions	Systems tend to resist change
Interactionism	Interaction creates social consensus	Self arises from communication	Involves finding new consensus

Key Concepts
Power, dominance, conflict, coercion integration, stability, interdependence
Symbols, consensus, shared expectations