All students writing theses, capstone projects, and dissertations are warmly invited to attend a “Virtual Thesis Writing Retreat at Pollak.” Accelerate your progress with personalized research and writing support from Librarian Research Consultants and Graduate Writing Consultants. Get motivated in specially-designed breakout sessions focused on the key writing and research skills CSUF students say impede their writing progress. Unwrap this gift of focused writing time in the convenience of your own home study spot. It’s your retreat—use the time your way.

FLEXIBLE!
- Join the retreat for part or all of the time!

PRODUCTIVE!
- Boost your research with individual assistance.
- Improve your writing with personal guidance.
- Discover writing resources at CSUF.
- Write!

EMPOWERING!
Librarian Support to help you:
- Beat writer’s block,
- Explore research topics,
- Locate on-campus thesis-writing resources,
- Use APA style,
- Access texts from beyond CSUF,
- And more!

Scheduled Retreats and Optional Breakout Sessions:

ONLINE Retreat:
Thursday, April 23rd, 12:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Breakout Sessions:
P Presenters will post virtual workshops and be available via Zoom for Q & A during these times:

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM Academic Writing for English Language Journals
- 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM Data Management and Analysis with SPSS

Stop worrying and start writing!
To reserve access to this event, please register at:

Sponsored by Writing Across the Curriculum, Pollak Library, and the Faculty Development Center