

HOUSING RESOURCES IN ORANGE COUNTY

This resource guide is intended for Cal State Fullerton Students who are experiencing housing insecurity and may need immediate housing outside of university business hours (Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.). If this applies to you, you should utilize this resource guide to secure temporary housing in the Orange County area.

If you are in need of an immediate housing placement outside of university business hours, are unsure which housing resource best fits your circumstances, or if you seek housing for yourself and your family, dial 2-1-1. 211 is a comprehensive source of local human and social services information in the United States. 211 is available 24/7/365, where you can confidentially explain your situation and needs, and be referred to appropriate resources.

For temporary housing support (for individual students only) during university business hours, students should complete a Basic Needs Online Request form, which can also include food assistance and emergency grant requests. Please note that responses to basic needs online request forms is 1-3 business days. bit.ly/csufbasicneedsform

If your request is urgent outside of university business hours, please utilize this resource guide if you are aware of what resources would best suit your needs. This resource guide includes emergency shelters, transitional housing, and low income housing resources.
